THE COURT EXPRESSLY FINDS AS FOLLOWS:³

I. Jurisdiction, Venue, and Final Order

A. This Court has jurisdiction to hear and determine the Motion pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1334. This is a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b)(2). Venue is proper in this District and in this Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409.

B. This Order constitutes a final and appealable order within the meaning of 28 U.S.C. § 158(a). Notwithstanding Bankruptcy Rules 6004(h) and 6006(d) and 7062, and to the extent necessary under Bankruptcy Rule 9014 and Rule 54(b) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, as made applicable by Bankruptcy Rule 7054, this Court expressly finds that there is no just reason for delay in the implementation of this Order and expressly directs entry of this Order as set forth herein.

II. Notice of the Sale of Quirky Assets, Quirky Agreement, Sale Hearing, Auction and the Cure Amounts

C. On September 22, 2015 (the "Petition Date"), each of the Debtors commenced a case by filing a voluntary petition for relief under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy

Code (the “Chapter 11 Cases”). Since the Petition Date, the Debtors have continued in possession and management of their businesses and properties as debtors-in-possession pursuant to sections 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code.

D. As evidenced by the affidavits of service previously filed with this Court, and based on the representations of counsel at the Sale Hearing, due, proper, timely, adequate and sufficient notice of the Motion, the Auction, the Sale Hearing, the Quirky Agreement and the sale of Quirky Assets has been provided in accordance with sections 102(1), 363 and 365 of the Bankruptcy Code, Bankruptcy Rules 2002, 6004, 6006 and 9014, and Local Rules 2002-1 and 6004-1. The Debtors have complied with all obligations to provide notice of the Motion, the Auction, the Sale Hearing, the Quirky Agreement and the sale of Quirky Assets as required by the Quirky Bidding Procedures Order. The aforementioned notices are good, sufficient and appropriate under the circumstances, and no other or further notice of the Motion, the Auction, the Sale Hearing, the Quirky Agreement or the sale of Quirky Assets is or shall be required.

E. A reasonable opportunity to object or to be heard regarding the relief requested in the Motion was afforded to all interested persons and entities.

III. Marketing Process

F. As demonstrated by the evidence proffered or adduced at the Sale Hearing and the representations of counsel at the Sale Hearing, the Debtors and their professionals have complied in all respects with the Quirky Bidding Procedures Order. The Debtors and their professionals have, under the circumstances, adequately and appropriately marketed the Quirky Assets. The bidding process was duly noticed and conducted in a diligent, non-collusive, fair and good faith manner, and the bidding process set forth in the Quirky Bidding Procedures Order afforded a full, fair and reasonable opportunity for any person or entity to qualify as a bidder, participate in the Auction and to make a higher or otherwise better offer to purchase the Quirky

Assets. The Debtors (i) provided potential purchasers, upon request, sufficient information to enable them to make an informed judgment on whether to bid on the Quirky Assets, and (ii) considered any bids submitted on or before the deadline established by the Court for the submission of bids.

G. The Buyer is the Successful Bidder for the Quirky Assets in accordance with the Quirky Bidding Procedures Order. The Buyer and its representatives have complied in all respects with the Quirky Bidding Procedures Order and all other applicable orders of this Court in negotiating and entering into the Quirky Agreement, and the sale and the Quirky Agreement likewise comply with the Quirky Bidding Procedures Order and all other applicable orders of this Court.

IV. Highest or Otherwise Best Offer; Business Judgment

H. The Quirky Agreement, including the form and total consideration to be realized by Quirky under the Quirky Agreement, (i) constitutes the highest or otherwise best offer received by Quirky for the Quirky Assets; (ii) is fair and reasonable; and (iii) is in the best interests of the Debtors, their estates, their creditors and all other parties in interest.

I. Quirky's determination that the consideration provided by the Buyer under the Quirky Agreement constitutes the highest or otherwise best offer for the Quirky Assets constitutes a valid and sound exercise of Quirky's business judgment.

J. Consistent with their fiduciary duties, Quirky has demonstrated good, sufficient and sound business reasons and justifications for entering into the sale of Quirky Assets and the performance of their obligations under the Quirky Agreement, including, but not limited to, the fact that (i) the consideration provided by the Buyer under the Quirky Agreement will provide a greater recovery for the Debtors' estates than would be provided by any other available alternative, including a separate liquidation of the Quirky Assets; and (ii) unless the sale is concluded expeditiously as provided for in the Motion and pursuant to the Quirky Agreement, recoveries of creditors will be diminished.

V. Good Faith; Arms' Length Sale

K. The sale process engaged in by Quirky, including, without limitation, the Quirky Bidding Procedures set forth in the Quirky Bidding Procedures Order and the negotiation of the Quirky Agreement, was at arms' length, non-collusive, in good faith, for fair value and substantively and procedurally fair to all parties.

L. The Debtors, the Buyer and their respective representatives have complied, in good faith, in all respects with the Quirky Bidding Procedures Order.

M. The Buyer is a good faith buyer within the meaning of section 363(m) of the Bankruptcy Code, and is therefore entitled to the full protection of that provision, and otherwise has proceeded in good faith in all respects in connection with these proceedings. None of the Debtors or the Buyer has engaged in any conduct that would prevent the application of section 363(m) of the Bankruptcy Code.

N. The Quirky Agreement and the sale of Quirky Assets contemplated thereunder were proposed, negotiated and entered into by and among Quirky and the Buyer without collusion, and none of the Debtors or the Buyer has engaged in any conduct that would cause or permit the Quirky Agreement or the sale of Quirky Assets to be avoided, or costs or damages to be imposed, under section 363(n) of the Bankruptcy Code.

O. Neither the Buyer nor any of its affiliates, present or contemplated members, officers, directors, shareholders or any of their respective successors and assigns is an "insider" of any of the Debtors, as that term is defined in section 101(31) of the Bankruptcy Code. No common identity of directors or controlling shareholders exists between the Debtors and the Buyer.

P. The Quirky Agreement was not entered into, and neither Quirky nor the Buyer has entered into the Quirky Agreement or proposes to consummate the sale of Quirky Assets, for the purpose of hindering, delaying or defrauding the Debtors' present or future creditors. Neither Quirky nor the Buyer is entering into the Quirky Agreement, or proposing to consummate the sale of Quirky Assets, fraudulently, for the purpose of statutory and common law fraudulent conveyance and fraudulent transfer claims whether under the Bankruptcy Code or under the laws of the United States, any state, territory, possession thereof or the District of Columbia or any other applicable jurisdiction with laws substantially similar to the foregoing.

Q. The form and total consideration to be realized by Quirky under the Quirky Agreement constitutes fair value, fair, full and adequate consideration, reasonably equivalent value and reasonable market value for the Quirky Assets.

VI. Corporate Authority

R. Quirky (i) has full corporate or other power to execute, deliver and perform their obligations under the Quirky Agreement and the sale of Quirky Assets contemplated thereby, and entry into the Quirky Agreement has been duly and validly authorized by all necessary corporate or similar action; (ii) has all of the corporate or other power and authority necessary to consummate the sale of Quirky Assets contemplated by the Quirky Agreement; and (iii) has taken all actions necessary to authorize and approve the Quirky Agreement and the sale of Quirky Assets contemplated thereby. No consents or approvals, other than those expressly provided for herein or in the Quirky Agreement, are required for the Debtors to consummate such sale of Quirky Assets.

VII. Section 363 Is Satisfied

S. The Debtors have, to the extent necessary, satisfied the requirements of section 363(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code. Accordingly, appointment of a consumer privacy ombudsman pursuant to sections 363(b)(1) or 332 of the Bankruptcy Code is not required with respect to the relief requested in the Motion.

T. The Quirky Assets constitute property of the Debtors' estates and exclusive title thereto is presently vested in the Debtors' estates within the meaning of section 541(a) of the Bankruptcy Code.

U. The sale of all Quirky Assets to the Buyer under the terms of the Quirky Agreement meets the applicable provisions of section 363(f) of the Bankruptcy Code such that the sale of the Quirky Assets will be free and clear of any and all Claims (except as expressly provided in the Quirky Agreement), the transfer of the Quirky Assets to the Buyer will be free and clear of all Claims and will not subject the Buyer or any of the Buyer's assets to any liability for any Claims whatsoever (including, without limitation, under any theory of equitable law, antitrust, setoff, or successor or transferee liability). All holders of Claims who did not object, or withdrew their objections to the sale of Quirky Assets, are deemed to have consented to the sale of Quirky Assets pursuant to section 363(f)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code. All holders of Claims are adequately protected – thus satisfying section 363(e) of the Bankruptcy Code – by having their Claims, if any, attach to the proceeds of the sale of Quirky Assets ultimately attributable to the property against or in which they assert a Claim or other specifically dedicated funds, in the same order of priority and with the same validity, force and effect that such Claim holder had prior to the sale of Quirky Assets, subject to any rights, claims and defenses of the Debtors or their estates, as applicable, or as otherwise provided herein.

V. The Buyer would not have entered into the Quirky Agreement and would not consummate the sale of Quirky Assets, thus adversely affecting the Debtors, their estates, creditors, employees and other parties in interest, if the sale of the Quirky Assets was not free and clear of all Claims or if the Buyer would, or in the future could, be liable for any Claims, including, without limitation and as applicable, certain liabilities that expressly are not assumed by the Buyer as set forth in the Quirky Agreement or in this Order. The Buyer asserts that it will not consummate the sale of Quirky Assets unless the Quirky Agreement specifically provides, and this Court specifically orders, that none of the Buyer, its assets or the Quirky Assets will have any liability whatsoever with respect to, or be required to satisfy in any manner, whether at law or in equity, whether by payment, setoff or otherwise, directly or indirectly, any (i) Claim, or (ii) any successor or transferee liability for any of the Debtors.

W. The Buyer is not a successor to the Debtors or their respective estates by reason of any theory of law or equity, and neither the Buyer nor any of its affiliates shall assume or in any way be responsible for any liability or obligation of any of the Debtors or their respective estates, except as otherwise expressly provided in the Quirky Agreement or this Order. The Buyer is not a continuation of the Debtors or their respective estates and there is no continuity between the Buyer and the Debtors. The Buyer is not holding itself out to the public as a continuation of the Debtors or their respective estates and the sale of Quirky Assets do not amount to a consolidation, merger or de facto merger of the Buyer and the Debtors.

X. The transfer of the Quirky Assets to the Buyer under the Quirky Agreement will be a legal, valid and effective transfer of all of the legal, equitable and beneficial right, title and interest in and to the Quirky Assets free and clear of all Claims. The transfer of the Quirky Assets to the Buyer will vest the Buyer with good and marketable title to the Quirky Assets.

Y. There is no legal or equitable reason to delay the sale of Quirky Assets. The sale of Quirky Assets must be approved and consummated promptly in order to preserve the value of the Debtors' assets. All factual predicates to the waiver of any stay of this Order under Bankruptcy Rules 6004(h) and 6006(d) have been satisfied.

Z. The Debtors have demonstrated both (i) good, sufficient and sound business judgment, purposes and justifications; and (ii) compelling circumstances for the Sale of Quirky Assets pursuant to section 363(b) of the Bankruptcy Code prior to, and outside of, a plan of reorganization in that, among other things, absent the immediate consummation of the sale of Quirky Assets, the value of the Debtors' assets will be harmed. To maximize the value of the Quirky Assets, it is essential that the sale of Quirky Assets occur within the timeframe set forth in the Quirky Agreement. Time is of the essence in consummating the sale of Quirky Assets.

AA. Entry into the Quirky Agreement and consummation of the sale of Quirky Assets do not constitute a sub rosa chapter 11 plan.

THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT:

I. General Provisions

1. The Motion is granted to the extent provided herein.
2. Any objections to the Motion or the relief requested therein that have not been withdrawn, waived or settled, and all reservations of rights included therein, are hereby overruled on the merits and denied with prejudice. All persons and entities given notice of the Motion that failed to timely object thereto are deemed to consent to the relief sought therein.
3. The findings and conclusions set forth herein constitute the Court's findings of fact and conclusions of law pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 7052, made applicable to this proceeding pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9014. To the extent any of the findings of fact constitute conclusions of law, they are adopted as such. To the extent any of the following conclusions of law constitute findings of fact, they are adopted as such.

II. Approval of the Quirky Agreement

4. The Quirky Agreement, all of the terms and conditions thereof, and consummation of the sale of Quirky Assets contemplated therein, are authorized and approved in all respects pursuant to section 363(b) of the Bankruptcy Code. The failure specifically to include any particular provision of the Quirky Agreement in this Order shall not diminish or impair the effectiveness of such provision, it being the intent of the Court that the Quirky Agreement be authorized and approved in its entirety.

5. The Debtors and their respective officers, employees and agents are authorized and directed to take any and all actions necessary, appropriate or reasonably requested by the Buyer to perform, consummate, implement and close the Sale of Quirky Assets, including, without limitation, (i) the sale to the Buyer of all Quirky Assets, in accordance with the terms and conditions set forth in the Quirky Agreement and this Order, and (ii) executing, acknowledging and delivering such deeds, assignments, conveyances and other assurance, documents and instruments of transfer and taking any action for purposes of assigning, transferring, granting, conveying and confirming to the Buyer, or reducing to possession, the Quirky Assets, including any further cooperation after the Closing pursuant to the Quirky Agreement. The Debtors are further authorized to pay, without further order of this Court, whether before, at or after the Closing, any expenses or costs that are required to be paid in order to consummate the Sale of Quirky Assets or perform their obligations under the Quirky Agreement.

6. All persons and entities are prohibited and enjoined from taking any action to prevent, adversely affect or interfere with, or which would be inconsistent with, the ability of the Debtors to transfer the Quirky Assets to the Buyer in accordance with the Quirky Agreement and this Order.

III. Sale and Transfer Free and Clear of Claims

7. Except as otherwise expressly provided in the Quirky Agreement, pursuant to sections 105(a) and 363(f) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Quirky Assets shall be sold free and clear of all claims, liens (including, without limitation, any statutory lien on real and personal property and any and all “liens” as that term is defined and used in the Bankruptcy Code, including section 101(37) thereof), liabilities, interests, rights and encumbrances, including, without limitation, the following: all mortgages, restrictions (including, without limitation, any restriction on the use, voting rights, transfer rights, claims for receipt of income or other exercise of any attributes of ownership), hypothecations, charges, indentures, loan agreements, instruments, leases, licenses, options, deeds of trust, security interests, equity interests, conditional sale rights or other title retention agreements, pledges, judgments, demands, rights of first refusal, consent rights, offsets, contract rights, rights of setoff, recoupment rights, rights of recovery, reimbursement rights, contribution claims, indemnity rights, exoneration rights, product liability claims, alter-ego claims, environmental rights and claims (including, without limitation, toxic tort claims), labor rights and claims, employment rights and claims, pension rights and claims, tax claims, regulatory violations by any governmental entity, decrees of any court or foreign or domestic governmental entity, charges of any kind or nature, debts arising in any way in connection with any agreements, acts, or failures to act, reclamation claims, obligation claims, demands, guaranties, option rights or claims, rights, contractual or other commitment rights and claims, rights of licensees or sublicensees (if any) under section 365(n) of the Bankruptcy Code or any similar statute, rights of tenants and subtenants (if any) under section 365(h) of the Bankruptcy Code or any similar statute, and all other matters of any kind and nature, whether known or unknown, choate or inchoate, filed or unfiled, scheduled or unscheduled, noticed or unnoticed, recorded or unrecorded, perfected or unperfected, allowed or disallowed, contingent or non-contingent, liquidated or unliquidated, matured or unmatured, material or non-material, disputed or undisputed, whether arising prior to or subsequent to the commencement of these Chapter 11 Cases (but, for the avoidance of doubt, in each case arising from the ownership of the Quirky Assets or the operation of the business prior to the Closing Date), and whether imposed by agreement, understanding, law, equity or otherwise, including claims otherwise arising under any theory, law or doctrine of successor liability or related theories (all of the foregoing collectively being referred to in this Order as “Claims”, and, as used in this Order, the term “Claims” includes, without limitation, any and all “claims” as that term is defined and used in the Bankruptcy Code, including section 101(5) thereof), with all such Claims to attach to the proceeds of the Sale of Quirky Assets to be received by the Debtors with the same validity, force, priority and effect which they now have as against the Quirky Assets, subject to any claims and defenses the Debtors may possess with respect thereto.

8. At Closing, all of Quirky’s right, title and interest in and to, and possession of, the Quirky Assets shall be immediately vested in the Buyer pursuant to sections 105(a), 363(b), 363(f) and 365 of the Bankruptcy Code free and clear of any and all Claims. Such transfer shall constitute a legal, valid, binding and effective transfer of, and shall vest the Buyer with good and marketable title to, the Quirky Assets. All person or entities, presently or on or after the Closing, in possession of some or all of the Quirky Assets are directed to surrender possession of the Quirky Assets to the Buyer or its designees on the Closing or at such time thereafter as the Buyer may request.

9. This Order is and shall be binding upon and govern the acts of all entities, including, without limitation, all filing agents, filing officers, title agents, title companies, recorders of mortgages, recorders of deeds, registrars of deeds, registrars of patents, trademarks or other intellectual property, administrative agencies, governmental departments, secretaries of state, federal and local officials and all other persons and entities who may be required by operation of law, the duties of their office or contract, to accept, file, register or otherwise record or release any documents or instruments; and each of the foregoing persons and entities is hereby authorized and directed to accept for filing any and all of the documents and instruments necessary and appropriate to consummate the Sale of Quirky Assets contemplated by the Quirky Agreement. The Quirky Assets are sold free and clear of any reclamation rights.

10. Except as otherwise expressly provided in the Quirky Agreement, all persons and entities (and their respective successors and assigns), including, but not limited to, all debt security holders, equity security holders, affiliates, governmental, tax and regulatory authorities, lenders, customers, vendors, employees, trade creditors, litigation claimants and other creditors holding Claims against Quirky or the Quirky Assets arising under or out of, in connection with, or in any way relating to, Quirky, Quirky's predecessors or affiliates, the Quirky Assets, the ownership, sale or operation of the Quirky Assets and the business prior to Closing or the transfer of the Quirky Assets to the Buyer, are hereby forever barred, estopped and permanently enjoined from asserting such Claims against the Buyer, its successors or assigns, their property or the Quirky Assets. Following the Closing, no holder of any Claim shall interfere with the Buyer's title to or use and enjoyment of the Quirky Assets based on or related to any such Claim, or based on any action the Debtors may take in the Chapter 11 Cases.

11. If any person or entity that has filed financing statements, mortgages, mechanic's Claims, lis pendens or other documents or agreements evidencing Claims against or in the Quirky Assets shall not have delivered to Quirky prior to the Closing of the Sale of Quirky Assets, in proper form for filing and executed by the appropriate parties, termination statements, instruments of satisfaction, releases of all Claims that the person or entity has with respect to the Quirky Assets, (a) the Debtors are hereby authorized and directed to execute and file such statements, instruments, releases and other documents on behalf of the person or entity with respect to the Quirky Assets; (b) the Buyer is hereby authorized to file, register or otherwise record a certified copy of this Order, which, once filed, registered or otherwise recorded, shall constitute conclusive evidence of the release of all such Claims against the Buyer and the applicable Quirky Assets; and (c) the Buyer may seek in this Court or any other court to compel appropriate parties to execute termination statements, instruments of satisfaction and releases of all such Claims with respect to the Quirky Assets. This Order is deemed to be in recordable form sufficient to be placed in the filing or recording system of each and every federal, state, or local government agency, department or office. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the provisions of this Order authorizing the sale and assignment of the Quirky Assets free and clear of Claims shall be self-executing, and none of the Debtors nor the Buyer shall be required to execute or file releases, termination statements, assignments, consents or other instruments in order to effectuate, consummate and implement the provisions of this Order.

12. To the maximum extent permitted under applicable law, the Buyer shall be authorized, as of the Closing Date, to operate under any license, permit, registration and governmental authorization or approval of the Debtors with respect to the Quirky Assets, and all such licenses, permits, registrations and governmental authorizations and approvals are deemed to have been, and hereby are, directed to be transferred to the Buyer as of the Closing Date.

13. No governmental unit (as defined in section 101(27) of the Bankruptcy Code) or any representative thereof may deny, revoke, suspend or refuse to renew any permit, license or similar grant relating to the operation of the Quirky Assets on account of the filing or pendency of the Chapter 11 Cases or the consummation of the Sale of Quirky Assets to the extent that any such action by a governmental unit or any representative thereof would violate section 525 of the Bankruptcy Code.

IV. No Successor or Transferee Liability

14. The Buyer shall not be deemed, as a result of any action taken in connection with the Quirky Agreement, the consummation of the Sale of Quirky Assets contemplated by the Quirky Agreement, or the transfer or operation of the Quirky Assets to (a) be a legal successor, or otherwise be deemed a successor to the Debtors; (b) have, de facto or otherwise, merged with or into the Debtors; or (c) be an alter ego or a mere continuation or substantial continuation of the Debtors or the enterprise(s) of the Debtors, including, without limitation, within the meaning of any foreign, federal, state or local revenue law, pension law, the Employee Retirement Income Security Act, the Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act (“COBRA”), WARN (defined below), CERCLA (defined below), the Fair Labor Standard Act, Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 (as amended), the Age Discrimination and Employment Act of 1967 (as amended), the Federal Rehabilitation Act of 1973 (as amended), the National Labor Relations Act, 29 U.S.C. § 151, et seq. (the “NLRA”), environmental liabilities, debts, claims or obligations arising from conditions first existing on or prior to the Closing Date (including, without limitation, the presence of hazardous, toxic, polluting, or contaminating substances or wastes), which may be asserted on any basis, including, without limitation, under CERCLA, any liabilities, debts or obligations of or required to be paid by the Debtors for any taxes of any kind for any period, labor, employment, or other law, rule or regulation (including, without limitation, filing requirements under any such laws, rules or regulations), or under any products liability law or doctrine with respect to the Debtors’ liability under such law, rule or regulation or doctrine.

15. The Buyer shall not have any responsibility for (a) any liability or other obligation of the Debtors or related to the Quirky Assets or (b) any Claims against the Debtors or any of their predecessors or affiliates. The Buyer shall have no liability whatsoever with respect to the Debtors' (or their predecessors' or affiliates') respective businesses or operations or any of the Debtors' (or their predecessors' or affiliates') obligations (as described herein, "Successor or Transferee Liability") based, in whole or part, directly or indirectly, on any theory of successor or vicarious liability of any kind or character, or based upon any theory of antitrust, environmental, successor or transferee liability, de facto merger or substantial continuity, labor and employment or products liability, whether known or unknown as of the Closing Date, now existing or hereafter arising, asserted or unasserted, fixed or contingent, liquidated or unliquidated, including liabilities on account of any taxes arising, accruing or payable under, out of, in connection with, or in any way relating to the operation of the Quirky Assets prior to the Closing. The Buyer shall have no liability or obligation under the WARN Act (29 U.S.C. §§ 2101 et seq.) ("WARN") or the Comprehensive Environmental Response Compensation and Liability Act ("CERCLA"), or any foreign, federal, state or local labor, employment, or environmental law whether of similar import or otherwise by virtue of the Buyer's purchase of the Quirky Assets by the Buyer.

16. Except as otherwise provided in the Quirky Agreement, nothing in this Order or the Quirky Agreement shall require the Buyer to (a) continue or maintain in effect, or assume any liability in respect of any employee, collective bargaining agreement, pension, welfare, fringe benefit or any other benefit plan, trust arrangement or other agreements to which the Debtors are a party or have any responsibility therefor including, without limitation, medical, welfare and pension benefits payable after retirement or other termination of employment; or (b) assume any responsibility as a fiduciary, plan sponsor or otherwise, for making any contribution to, or in respect of the funding, investment or administration of any employee benefit plan, arrangement or agreement (including but not limited to pension plans) or the termination of any such plan, arrangement or agreement.

17. Effective upon the Closing Date, all persons and entities are forever prohibited and enjoined from commencing or continuing in any matter any action or other proceeding, whether in law or equity, in any judicial, administrative, arbitral or other proceeding against the Buyer, or its assets (including the Quirky Assets), with respect to any (a) Claim or (b) Successor or Transferee Liability including, without limitation, the following actions with respect to clauses (a) and (b): (i) commencing or continuing any action or other proceeding pending or threatened; (ii) enforcing, attaching, collecting or recovering in any manner any judgment, award, decree or order; (iii) creating, perfecting or enforcing any lien, claim, interest or encumbrance; (iv) asserting any setoff, right of subrogation or recoupment of any kind; (v) commencing or continuing any action, in any manner or place, that does not comply with, or is inconsistent with, the provisions of this Order or other orders of this Court, or the agreements or actions contemplated or taken in respect hereof; or (vi) revoking, terminating or failing or refusing to renew any license, permit or authorization to operate any of the Quirky Assets or conduct any of the businesses operated with such assets.

V. Good Faith; Arms' Length Sale

18. The Quirky Agreement has been negotiated and executed, and the Sale of Quirky Assets contemplated by the Quirky Agreement are and have been undertaken, by Quirky, the Buyer and their respective representatives at arms' length, without collusion and in "good faith," as that term is defined in section 363(m) of the Bankruptcy Code. Accordingly, the reversal or modification on appeal of the authorization provided herein to consummate the sale shall not affect the validity of the Sale of Quirky Assets, unless such authorization and consummation of the sale are duly and properly stayed pending such appeal. The Buyer is a good faith purchaser within the meaning of section 363(m) of the Bankruptcy Code and, as such, is entitled to the full protections of section 363(m) of the Bankruptcy Code.

19. Neither Quirky nor the Buyer has engaged in any conduct that would cause or permit the Quirky Agreement or the Sale of Quirky Assets to be avoided or costs, or damages or costs, to be imposed, under section 363(n) of the Bankruptcy Code. The consideration provided by the Buyer for the Quirky Assets under the Quirky Agreement is fair and reasonable, and the Sale of Quirky Assets may not be avoided under section 363(n) of the Bankruptcy Code.

VI. Other Provisions

20. Section 2.2(g) (Excluded Assets) of the Quirky Agreement is deleted in its entirety and replaced with the following:

All causes of action that the Seller may hold against any current or former director, officer or employee of Seller for breach of fiduciary duty or claims of a similar nature, provided that any such causes of action, whenever arising, that may be asserted against a director, officer or employee of Seller who becomes a director, officer, or employee of the Purchaser may be asserted against such Person solely to the extent of available insurance proceeds and may not be asserted to recover from the personal assets of such Person.

21. In full resolution of the objections filed by General Electric and related entities (collectively “GE”) [Docket Nos. 182, 225] and the matters raised therein (i) all GE co-branded inventory, including but not limited to that set forth in the exhibit attached to GE’s supplemental objection [Docket No. 225] (the “Co-Branded Inventory”), shall be removed from the Sale of Quirky Assets, and the Buyer agrees that those assets are not being sold to it, and (ii) the purchase price for the consideration of the Sale of Quirky Assets shall be reduced by $175,000. Quirky shall retain the right to sell the Co-Branded Inventory to a third party only with the consent of GE or upon motion to and approval by the Court; and provided further that, in connection with such sale of Co-Branded Inventory, the Buyer shall have the right of first refusal as to any approved sale to a third party.

22. In full resolution of the objection filed by Flextronics Sales and Marketing (A-P), Ltd. and other related entities (collectively, “Flex”) [Docket No. 185] and the matters raised therein (i) Quirky will transfer to Flex, free and clear of liens, claims, encumbrances and interests pursuant to Section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code, all of Quirky’s right, title and interest related in any way to Norm and P6-Ohno, including, without limitation, the patent applications, know-how, prototypes, design, engineering and other work, and other intellectual property to the extent embodied in those products and all of Quirky’s Statement of Work 103 (Norm) and Statement of Work 105 (P6-Ohno), and the Buyer agrees that those assets are not being sold to it, (ii) Flex consents to Quirky’s transfer to the Buyer of Spotter, IFM (Infant Formula Mixer) and Poppy and will not assert any cure claim or other right to current or future payment for the same against either the Debtors or the Buyer; and (iii) Flex shall have no obligation to provide further design or other support to Quirky or the Buyer. For additional specificity, the following assets are hereby deleted from the disclosure schedules to the Quirky Agreement and are not being conveyed as part of the sale to Purchaser: (i) the patent application for Norm (Disclosure Schedules, Page A-15) and (ii) the patent application Battery Kiosk (Disclosure Schedules, Page A-15).

23. In consideration for Flex’s withdrawal of its objection to the sale of the Quirky Assets and the transfer of the products to Flex as set forth above, Flex agrees to provide the Debtors with the right to continued use and occupancy, on a rent-free basis, to (i) that portion of the premises located at 606 West 28th Street, New York, NY 10001 currently occupied by Wink, Inc. and the Debtors' remaining furniture, fixtures and equipment (the "FF&E"); or (ii) any space to which Wink, Inc. and the FF&E may move, for a period concluding on the earlier of March 31, 2016 or the effective date of a plan of liquidation (subject to a reasonable extension in the event that the Debtors' plan of liquidation is not confirmed prior to March 31, 2016). In addition, Quirky shall retain the existing units on hand of the Norm inventory.

24. The purchase price for the consideration of the Sale of Quirky Assets shall be reduced by $60,000 as a result of the resolution of the Flex objection set forth above.

25. Notwithstanding anything in the Quirky Agreement to the contrary, the Quirky Assets acquired by the Buyer, excluding those Quirky Assets that were not submitted by Users shall not include any Product Idea, Inventions, or Intellectual Property Rights that are unrelated to an Accepted Product Idea (collectively, the "Undeveloped Inventions") unless the Undeveloped Inventions are identified by the Buyer on a schedule to be delivered by the Buyer and filed with the Bankruptcy Court no later than one hundred twenty (120) days following the closing of the Sale. All claims, rights, and interests in the Undeveloped Inventions that are not identified on such schedule will revert to the respective User as if such Undeveloped Inventions were never submitted to the Site. No later than one year following the Closing Date, the Buyer shall deliver an amended schedule to be filed with the Bankruptcy Court that will remove any Undeveloped Inventions from the schedule that the Buyer has chosen not to pursue for development and/or commercialization. For purposes of this Paragraph, the terms Product Idea, Inventions, Intellectual Property Rights, Accepted Product Idea, User, and Site shall have the meanings ascribed to them in the Quirky.com Terms of Use and Privacy Policy, effective as of June 10, 2015.

26. Quirky, the Buyer, Comerica Bank (“Comerica”), and the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors (the “Committee”) agree that $325,000 of the proceeds of the Sale (the “Community Fund”) shall be reserved and earmarked for distribution to the account holders at Quirky.com (the “Community Members”) in consideration of the transfer of the Quirky Assets to the Buyer free and clear of the interests of the Community Members. The allocation of the Community Fund shall be determined by the Committee (or any estate representative vested with the rights and privileges of the Committee) with reasonable and appropriate notice to all known Community Members of not less than twenty-one (21) days prior to the distribution of the Community Fund. Quirky and the Buyer agree to provide the Committee (or the estate representative charged with distribution of the Community Fund) with access to all reasonable information that may be necessary for determining identification of Community Members, as well as appropriate allocations and distributions of the Community Fund. All administrative fees associated with the Community Fund shall be satisfied from the Community Fund.

27. In consideration for the creation of the Community Fund, the Committee acknowledges and agrees that (i) as of the Petition Date, Comerica has a first priority security interest in and liens on the Quirky Assets that are being transferred to the Buyer pursuant to this Order and the Co-Branded Inventory owned by Quirky (the “Acknowledged Liens”); (ii) the Acknowledged Liens are valid, binding, enforceable, non-avoidable and properly perfected as of the Petition Date; and the Committee shall waive all potential claims and challenge rights with respect to the Acknowledged Liens provided for in the Order (I) Authorizing Debtors to Use Cash Collateral, (II) Granting Adequate Protection, and (III) Granting Certain Related Relief [Docket No. 119] (the “Final Cash Collateral Order”). Notwithstanding the waiver of all potential claims and challenge rights with respect to the Acknowledged Liens, the Committee retains all other potential claims and challenge rights as provided in the Final Cash Collateral Order, including, without limitation, the right to challenge any liens on the assets of Wink, Inc. and the proceeds thereof. Nothing in this Order shall prejudice the Committee from seeking substantive consolidation of these chapter 11 cases.

28. Upon the closing of the Sale of Quirky Assets, Comerica shall receive prompt payment from the proceeds of the Sale of Quirky Assets in the amount of $3,025,000 on account of its prepetition secured claim against Quirky. Upon the closing of any sale of Co-Branded Inventory owned by Quirky, Comerica shall receive prompt payment of the proceeds that result from such sale on account of its prepetition secured claim against Quirky.

29. The requirements set forth in Bankruptcy Rules 6003(b), 6004 and 6006 and Local Bankruptcy Rules 6004-1 and 9013-1 have been satisfied or otherwise deemed waived.

30. The Buyer shall not be required to seek or obtain relief from the automatic stay under section 362 of the Bankruptcy Code to give any notice permitted by the Quirky Agreement or to enforce any of its remedies under the Quirky Agreement or any other sale-related document. The automatic stay imposed by section 362 of the Bankruptcy Code is modified solely to the extent necessary to implement the preceding sentence; provided however, that this Court shall retain exclusive jurisdiction over any and all disputes with respect thereto.

31. The provisions of this Order and the Quirky Agreement are non-severable and mutually dependent.

32. The Quirky Agreement and any related agreements, documents or other instruments may be modified, amended or supplemented by the parties thereto and in accordance with the terms thereof, without further order of the Court; provided that any such modification, amendment or supplement does not have a material adverse effect on the Debtors' estates.

33. The Court shall retain exclusive jurisdiction (for as long as the chapter 11 cases are open) to, among other things, interpret, implement, and enforce the terms and provisions of this Order and the Quirky Agreement, all amendments thereto and any waivers and consents thereunder and each of the agreements executed in connection therewith to which the Debtors are a party, and to adjudicate, if necessary, any and all disputes concerning or relating in any way to the Sale of Quirky Assets. This Court retains jurisdiction to compel delivery of the Quirky Assets, to protect the Buyer and its assets, including the Quirky Assets, against any Claims and Successor and Transferee Liability and to enter orders, as appropriate, pursuant to sections 105(a), 363 or 365 (or other applicable provisions) of the Bankruptcy Code necessary to transfer the Quirky Assets to the Buyer. Buyer may at its election enforce this Order in any other court of competent jurisdiction in defense of any Claims asserted against it by third parties or similar issues.

34. As provided by Bankruptcy Rules 7062 and 9014, the terms and conditions of this Order shall be effective immediately upon entry and shall not be subject to the stay provisions contained in Bankruptcy Rules 6004(h) and 6006(d) or any similar rule that would delay the effectiveness of this Order. Time is of the essence in closing the sale and Quirky and the Buyer intend to close the sale consummate the Sale of Quirky Assets as soon as possible. Therefore, any party objecting to this Order must exercise due diligence in filing an appeal and pursuing a stay or risk their appeal being foreclosed as moot.

35. This Order and the Quirky Agreement shall be binding in all respects upon all creditors of (whether known or unknown), and holders of equity interests in, any Debtor, any holders of Claims in, against or on all or any portion of the Quirky Assets, all successors and assigns of the Buyer, the Debtors and their affiliates and subsidiaries and any subsequent trustee appointed in the Chapter 11 Cases or upon a conversion to chapter 7 under the Bankruptcy Code, and shall not be subject to rejection. Nothing contained in any chapter 11 plan confirmed in the Chapter 11 Cases, any order confirming any such chapter 11 plan or any order approving wind-down or dismissal of the Chapter 11 Cases or any subsequent chapter 7 cases shall conflict with or derogate from the provisions of the Quirky Agreement or this Order, and to the extent of any conflict or derogation between this Order or the Quirky Agreement and such future plan or order, the terms of this Order and the Quirky Agreement shall control.

36. To the extent any provisions of this Order conflict with, or are otherwise inconsistent with, the terms and conditions of the Quirky Agreement or the Quirky Bidding Procedures Order, this Order shall govern and control.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

In the event an appeal is taken, or a stay pending appeal is requested, from any of the foregoing orders of the Bankruptcy Court, Seller shall immediately notify Purchaser of such appeal or stay request and, upon Purchaser's request, shall provide to Purchaser within one (1) business day after Seller's receipt thereof a copy of the related notice of appeal or order of stay. Seller shall also provide Purchaser with written notice of any motion, application, brief or other pleading filed in connection with any appeal from any of such orders.

5.5 Apportioned Obligations. All personal property Taxes and similar ad valorem obligations levied with respect to the Purchased Assets for a taxable period which includes (but does not end on) the Closing Date (collectively, the "Apportioned Obligations") shall be apportioned between Seller and Purchaser based on the number of days of such taxable period included in the Pre-Closing Tax Period and the number of days of such taxable period included in the Post-Closing Tax Period. Seller shall be liable for the proportionate amount of such Taxes that is attributable to the Pre-Closing Tax Period, and Purchaser shall be liable for the proportionate amount of such Taxes that is attributable to the Post-Closing Tax Period. Upon receipt of any bill for personal property taxes relating to the Purchased Assets, each of Seller and Purchaser shall present a statement to the other setting forth the amount of reimbursement to which each is entitled under this Section 5.5 together with such supporting evidence as is reasonably necessary to calculate the proration amount. The proration amount shall be paid by the party owing it to the other within fifteen (15) Business Days after delivery of such statement. In the event that any of Seller or Purchaser shall make any payment for which it is entitled to reimbursement under this Section 5.5, the applicable other party shall make such reimbursement promptly but in no event later than fifteen (15) Business Days after the presentation of a statement setting forth the amount of reimbursement to which presenting party is entitled along with such supporting evidence as is reasonably necessary to calculate the amount of reimbursement. Purchaser shall notify Seller of any audit or examination of the Apportioned Obligations. The Seller shall have the right to participate in any such audit or examination and Purchaser shall not settle any such audit or examination without the consent of Seller, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld.

5.6 Notification. From time to time prior to the Closing, Seller shall notify Purchaser in writing with respect to any matter hereafter arising or any information obtained after the date hereof that, if existing, occurring or known at or prior to the date of this Agreement, would have been required to be set forth or described in the Disclosure Schedule or that is necessary to complete or correct any information in such schedule or in any representation and warranty of Seller that has been rendered inaccurate thereby.

6. Conditions Precedent to Closing.

6.1 Conditions Precedent to Obligations of Purchaser. The obligation of Purchaser under this Agreement to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement on the Closing Date shall be subject to the satisfaction, at or prior to the Closing Date, of all of the following conditions, any one or more of which may be waived by Purchaser:

(a) Representations and Warranties Accurate. The representations and warranties of Seller contained in this Agreement which are qualified as to materiality shall be correct and complete in all respects, and those not so qualified shall be correct and complete in all material respects, as of the Closing Date with the same force and effect as though made on and as of the Closing Date (except in any case that representations and warranties that expressly speak as of a specified date or time need only be correct and complete as of such specified date or time). Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, in the event that Purchaser has actual knowledge that any of such representations and warranties of Seller contained in this Agreement are not true and correct and complete in all respects as of the Closing Date, Purchaser's sole remedy shall be to terminate this Agreement in accordance with Section 7.1(b) hereof.

(b) Performance. Seller shall have performed and complied in all material respects with all covenants and agreements required to be performed or complied with by Seller hereunder on or prior to the Closing Date.

(c) Consents. All Consents required in connection with the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and the Closing shall have been duly obtained, made or given and shall be in full force and effect, without the imposition upon Purchaser of any material condition, restriction or required undertaking.

(d) No Legal Prohibition. No suit, action, investigation, inquiry or other proceeding by any Governmental Entity or other Person shall have been instituted and remain in effect or threatened by any Governmental Entity which arises out of or relates to this Agreement, or the transactions contemplated hereby and no injunction, order, decree or judgment shall have been issued and be in effect or threatened to be issued by any Governmental Entity of competent jurisdiction, and no statute, rule or regulation shall have been enacted or promulgated by any Governmental Entity and be in effect, which in each case restrains or prohibits the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby.

(e) No Material Adverse Effect. No Material Adverse Effect shall have occurred and no other event, loss, damage, condition or state of facts of any kind shall exist which has a Material Adverse Effect or can reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect.

(f) Additional Documents, etc. There shall have been delivered to Purchaser each of the agreements, documents, certificates and other items set forth on Schedule 6.1(g) of this Agreement.

(g) Entry of Order; Appeal. On or before December 8, 2015, the Bankruptcy Court shall have entered an order (the "Stalking Horse Order"), in the form attached hereto as Exhibit I, with only such changes as shall be acceptable in form and substance to Purchaser. In addition the Bankruptcy Court shall have entered the Sale Approval Order in accordance with Section 5.4(b) and the Sale Approval Order shall have become a Final Order, unless the finality of such orders is waived by Purchaser in Purchaser's sole discretion.

6.2 Conditions Precedent to Obligations of Seller. The obligations of Seller under this Agreement to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement on the Closing Date shall be subject to the satisfaction, at or prior to the Closing Date, of all of the following conditions, any one or more of which may be waived by Seller:

(a) Representations and Warranties Accurate. The representations and warranties of Purchaser contained in this Agreement which are qualified as to materiality shall be correct and complete in all respects, and those not so qualified shall be correct and complete in all material respects, as of the Closing Date with the same force and effect as though made on and as of the Closing Date (except in any case that representations and warranties that expressly speak as of a specified date or time need only be correct and complete as of such specified date or time).

(b) Performance by Purchaser. Purchaser shall have performed and complied in all material respects with all covenants and agreements required to be performed or complied with by such Person hereunder on or prior to the Closing Date.

(c) Consents. All Consents required to be obtained by Purchaser in connection with the purchase and sale of the Purchased Assets and the Closing shall have been duly obtained, made or given and shall be in full force and effect.

(d) No Legal Prohibition. No injunction, order, decree or judgment shall have been issued and be in effect or threatened to be issued by any Governmental Entity of competent jurisdiction, and no statute, rule or regulation shall have been enacted or promulgated by any Governmental Entity and be in effect, which in each case restrains or prohibits the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby.

(e) Additional Documents, etc. There shall have been delivered to Seller each of the agreements, documents and other items set forth on Schedule 6.1(g) of this Agreement to be delivered to Seller.

6.3 Sale Approval Order as Final Order. If Purchaser elects in its sole discretion to waive the condition to Closing that the Sale Approval Order shall be a Final Order, then Seller shall be obligated to proceed with the Closing except during any period during which the Sale Approval Order is stayed.

7. Miscellaneous

7.1 Termination. This Agreement may be terminated, and the transactions contemplated herein may be abandoned:

(a) any time before the Closing, by mutual written agreement of Seller and Purchaser;

(b) any time before the Closing, by Seller, on the one hand, or Purchaser, on the other hand, (i) in the event of a material breach hereof by Seller, on the one hand, or Purchaser, on the other hand, if such non-terminating party fails to cure such breach within five (5) Business Days following notification thereof by the terminating party, or (ii) upon written notification to the non-terminating party by the terminating party that the satisfaction of any condition to the terminating party's obligations under this Agreement becomes impossible or impracticable with the use of commercially reasonable efforts if the failure of such condition to be satisfied is not caused by a breach hereof by the terminating party;

(c) at the election of Purchaser as notified in writing to Seller, if the Schedules and Exhibits to this Agreement are not delivered, in form and substance reasonably acceptable to Purchaser, by November 13, 2015;

(d) if not earlier terminated, at the election of Purchaser as notified in writing to Seller, if the Closing has not occurred by December 11, 2015 and such failure is not the result of a breach by Purchaser; or

(e) at the election of the Purchaser as notified in writing to the Seller, if the Auction occurs and Purchaser is not the successful bidder at the Auction or the Back-Up Bidder (as defined in the Bidding Procedures Order) or if the Seller enters into an agreement or transaction, including any Competing Transaction with a third party that is materially inconsistent with this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby in a material respect.

7.2 Effect of Termination.

(a) If this Agreement is validly terminated pursuant to Section 7.1, this Agreement will forthwith become null and void, and there will be no liability or obligation on the part of any party (or any of their respective officers, directors, employees, partners, agents or other representatives or Affiliates), except that the provisions with respect to expenses and fees in Section 7.3 will continue to apply following any such termination.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 7.2(a), above:

(i) if Purchaser, Seller terminates this Agreement pursuant to Section 7.1(a) or Purchaser terminates this Agreement pursuant to Section 7.1(c) or 7.1(d), Purchaser shall receive the prompt return of the Deposit which, in the case of Purchaser terminating this Agreement pursuant to Section 7.1(c) or 7.1(d), shall constitute Purchaser's sole and exclusive remedy available under any law, including the Bankruptcy Code;

(ii) if Purchaser terminates this Agreement pursuant to Section 7.1(b)(i) or Seller or Purchaser terminates this Agreement pursuant to Section 7.1(b)(ii), Purchaser shall receive the prompt return of the Deposit which, in the case of a termination of this Agreement pursuant to this Section 7.2(b)(ii), shall constitute Purchaser's sole and exclusive remedy available under any law, including the Bankruptcy Code;

(iii) if Seller terminates this Agreement pursuant to Section 7.1(b)(i), Seller shall receive the Deposit, which shall constitute Seller's sole and exclusive remedy available under any law, including the Bankruptcy Code; and

(iv) if Purchaser terminates this Agreement pursuant to Section 7.1(e), then Seller shall promptly following the closing of the corresponding transaction pay Purchaser in immediately available funds, and Purchaser shall be deemed to have earned both (i) the Expense Reimbursement and (ii) an amount equal to $69,000 (the "Break-Up Fee"). If this Agreement is terminated by Purchaser for any reason in accordance with Section 7.1 (other than Section 7.1(e)) and the Seller subsequently consummates a sale of all of the Purchased Assets with a Person other than Purchaser, including in connection with any Competing Transaction, Seller shall promptly pay Purchaser, and Purchaser shall be deemed to have earned, the Expense Reimbursement. The Break-Up Fee and the Expense Reimbursement shall constitute an administrative expense of Seller with priority over any and all administrative expenses of the kind specified in Section 503(b) of the Bankruptcy Code until paid and shall be payable from the proceeds of a sale to a third party within two (2) Business Days, notwithstanding Section 507(a) of the Bankruptcy Code. Purchaser and Seller hereby acknowledge that amounts payable pursuant to this Section 7.2(b)(iv) are commercially reasonable and necessary to induce Purchaser to enter into this Agreement and consummate the transactions contemplated hereby. For the avoidance of doubt, the covenants set forth in this Section 7.2(b)(iv) are continuing obligations, separate and independent from the other obligations of Seller and Purchaser, and survive the termination of this Agreement.

7.3 Expenses. Except as otherwise set forth in Section 7.2, each party hereto shall pay its own expenses incurred in connection with this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby.

7.4 Compliance with Laws. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Agreement to the contrary, the obligations of the parties shall be subject to all laws, present and future, of any government having jurisdiction over the parties and this transaction, and to orders, regulations, directions or requests of any such government.

7.5 Further Cooperation. Without limiting Seller's obligations under Section 5.3, at the request of Purchaser, at any time following the Closing Date, Seller shall execute and deliver such other instruments and documents and do and perform such other acts as may be reasonably necessary for the operation of the Acquired Assets by Purchaser and effecting completely the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby, including execution, acknowledgment and recordation of other such papers (which shall include as necessary the execution by Seller of a Power of Attorney in substantially the form attached hereto as Exhibit E), using reasonable efforts to obtain the same from the respective inventors or authors as necessary for perfecting and conveying unto Purchaser the benefit of the transactions contemplated hereby; provided that Seller shall not be obligated to pay any material consideration or incur any material costs to provide such cooperation.

7.6 Governing Law; Jurisdiction. All disputes arising out of or related to this Agreement, including, without limitation, any dispute relating to the interpretation, meaning or effect of any provision hereof, will be resolved in the Bankruptcy Court and the parties hereto will each submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Bankruptcy Court for the purposes of adjudicating any such dispute, to the extent the jurisdiction of the Bankruptcy Court is applicable. If the jurisdiction of the Bankruptcy Court is not applicable, any legal action, suit or proceeding arising out of or relating to this Agreement, each and every agreement and instrument contemplated hereby or the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby shall be instituted in any Federal court of the Southern District of New York. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the internal laws of the State of New York (i.e., without regard to its conflicts of law rules).

7.7 Entire Agreement; Interpretation. The terms and conditions of this Agreement, including its exhibits and the Ancillary Agreements, constitute the entire agreement between the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof, and supersede all prior and contemporaneous agreements, understandings, negotiations and discussions. None of the parties shall be bound by any conditions, definitions, warranties, understandings, or representations with respect to the subject matter hereof other than as expressly provided herein. The section headings contained in this Agreement are for reference purposes only and shall not affect in any way the meaning or interpretation of this Agreement. No oral explanation or oral information by either party hereto shall alter the meaning or interpretation of this Agreement. The terms "includes" and "including" are not limiting. These terms and conditions will prevail notwithstanding any different, conflicting or additional terms and conditions which may appear on any purchase order, acknowledgment or other writing not expressly incorporated into this Agreement. Unless a contrary intention appears, (i) the words "herein", "hereof" and "hereunder" and other words of similar import refer to this Agreement as a whole and not to any particular Article, Section or other subdivision, and (ii) reference to any Article or Section means such Article or Section hereof. Any accounting terms used in this Agreement shall, unless otherwise defined in this Agreement, have the meaning ascribed thereto by GAAP.

Such notices shall be deemed served when received by addressee or, if delivery is not accomplished by reason of some fault of the addressee, when tendered for delivery. Either party may give written notice of a change of address and, after notice of such change has been received, any notice or request shall thereafter be given to such party at such changed address.

7.9 Counterparts; Facsimile and Email Transmission. This Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts, each of which when executed shall be deemed to be an original but all of which taken together shall constitute one and the same agreement, and any such executed counterpart may be delivered by transmission of the manually signed document by facsimile transmission or in "pdf" form delivered by electronic mail, and such facsimile or "pdf" representation of such manual signature shall constitute execution thereof.

7.10 No Ongoing Obligations. Purchaser shall not have any obligations solely by virtue of the provisions of this Agreement to support, maintain or otherwise continue the business operations of Seller or to otherwise market, promote or develop the Purchased Assets after the Closing Date.

7.11 Survival of Representations and Warranties. All of the representations and warranties of Purchaser contained in this Agreement shall survive the Closing Date and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby. All of the representations and warranties of Seller contained in this Agreement shall survive until the Closing Date and terminate upon the closing of the transactions contemplated hereby.

7.12 Amendment. This Agreement may not be amended or modified except by an instrument in writing signed by, or on behalf of, Seller and Purchaser.

7.13 Indemnification Obligations. After the Closing, Purchaser shall indemnify Seller against and shall hold it harmless from any and all liabilities, losses, damages, costs and expenses (including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses) that Seller may suffer or incur by reason of Seller's defense of any claim, suit or proceeding made or commenced against it arising out of obligations that were expressly assumed by Purchaser hereunder and only expressly for liabilities, claims or amounts arising or accruing after the Closing Date. Seller shall provide written notice to Purchaser of any claim or dispute as to which indemnification is requested under this Section within 10 days of receipt of written notice by Seller of the commencement, or threatened commencement, of any such action; provided that the failure to provide such notice will not affect any rights hereunder except to the extent Purchaser is materially prejudiced thereby. Seller, on not less than thirty (30) days' notice to Purchaser, may make settlement of such claim, litigation or other proceeding with Purchaser's consent, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld, and such settlement shall be binding on Seller and Purchaser for the purposes of this Section; provided that, if within said thirty-day period Purchaser shall, in writing, have requested Seller to contest such claim, or to defend against such litigation or other proceeding, then Purchaser shall have the right and obligation to contest such claim or to defend against such litigation or other proceeding on its own behalf and on behalf of Seller, with counsel of its own choosing, but Seller may also, in its discretion, participate in such contest or defense on its own behalf and with counsel of its own choosing. If Purchaser shall have failed, neglected or refused to contest such claim or to defend against such litigation or other proceeding, Purchaser shall reimburse Seller for the expenses incurred by Seller in such contest or defense. Any payment or settlement resulting from such contest or defense, together with Seller's costs thereof, shall be binding on Seller and on Purchaser for the purposes of this Section.

7.14 No Agency. The parties hereto are independent contractors. Except as may be provided in this Agreement, no party has any express or implied right or authority to assume or create any obligations on behalf of any other party or to bind any other party to any contract, agreement or undertaking with any third party. Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed to create a partnership, joint venture, employment or agency relationship between Seller and Purchaser.

7.15 Specific Performance. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein (other than Section 7.2(b) hereof), each party hereto acknowledges that money damages would be incalculable and an insufficient remedy for any breach of this Agreement by such party and that any such breach would cause the other party hereto irreparable harm. Accordingly, each party hereto also agrees that, in the event of any breach or threatened breach of the provisions of this Agreement by such party, the other parties hereto shall (except to the extent Section 7.2(b) is applicable) be entitled to equitable relief without the requirement of posting a bond or other security, including in the form of injunctions and orders for specific performance.

7.16 Severability. Any provision of this Agreement which is prohibited or unenforceable in any jurisdiction shall not invalidate the remaining provisions hereof, and any such prohibition or unenforceability in any jurisdiction shall not invalidate or render unenforceable such provision in any other jurisdiction, and any such provision, to the extent invalid or unenforceable, shall be replaced by a valid and enforceable provision which comes closest to the intention of the parties underlying such invalid or unenforceable provision.

7.17 Waivers. Waiver by any party of any breach of or failure to comply with any provision of this Agreement by the other party shall not be construed as, or constitute, a continuing waiver of such provision, or a waiver of any other breach of, or failure to comply with, any other provision of this Agreement. No waiver of any such breach or failure or of any term or condition of this Agreement shall be effective unless in a written notice signed by the waiving party and delivered, in the manner required for notices generally, to each affected party.

7.18 Binding Effect; Third Party Beneficiaries; Assignment. This Agreement shall be binding upon, inure to the benefit of, and be enforceable by, the parties hereto and their respective successors and permitted assigns. Except as expressly set forth herein, nothing expressed or referred to in this Agreement is intended or shall be construed to give any Person other than the parties to this Agreement, or their respective legal representatives, successors and permitted assigns, any legal or equitable right, remedy or claim under or in respect of this Agreement or any provision contained herein. No party may assign this Agreement nor any of its rights hereunder, other than any right to payment of a liquidated sum, nor delegate any of its obligations hereunder, without the prior written consent of the other parties, except that Purchaser may assign its rights under this Agreement in whole or in part to any Affiliate or to any Person providing financing for the transaction, and to any purchaser of all or substantially all of the Purchased Assets from Purchaser.

Form of Bill of Sale, Assignment and Assumption

BILL OF SALE, ASSIGNMENT AND ASSUMPTION AGREEMENT

This BILL OF SALE, ASSIGNMENT AND ASSUMPTION AGREEMENT (this "Agreement") is entered into as of [●], 2015, by and between Q HOLDINGS LLC, a Delaware limited liability company ("Buyer") and QUIRKY, INC., a Delaware corporation ("Seller"). Buyer and Seller are sometimes individually referred to in this Agreement as a "Party" and collectively as the "Parties." All capitalized terms used but not defined herein have the meanings assigned to them in the Purchase Agreement as defined below.

WITNESSETH:

WHEREAS, pursuant to the terms of the Asset Purchase Agreement, dated as of November 2, 2015 agreed to sell to Buyer, and Buyer has agreed to purchase from Seller, the Purchased Assets; and

WHEREAS, the Parties wish formally to acknowledge such sale, assignment and assumption.

NOW, THEREFORE, for good and valuable consideration paid by Buyer to Seller, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, pursuant to the terms of the Purchase Agreement, Seller and Buyer hereby agree as follows:

1. Purchase and Sale of Assets. Subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the Purchase Agreement, Seller does hereby sell, convey, assign, transfer and deliver to Buyer all right, title and interest of Seller in and to all of the Purchased Assets, free and clear of all interests thereon. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, the Excluded Assets are specifically excluded from the Purchased Assets sold, conveyed, assigned, transferred or delivered to Buyer hereby and are retained by Seller.
2. Conflicts with Purchase Agreement. Each party acknowledges and agrees that neither the representations and warranties nor the rights, remedies or obligations of any party under the Purchase Agreement shall be deemed to be enlarged, modified or altered in any way by this Agreement. In the event of any conflict or inconsistency between the terms of this Agreement and the Purchase Agreement, the terms of the Purchase Agreement shall govern and control.
3. Entire Agreement. This Agreement and the Purchase Agreement contain the entire agreement and understanding between the Parties hereto with respect to the subject matter hereof and supersede all prior agreements and understandings, whether written or oral, relating to such subject matter in any way.
4. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts, each of which when executed shall be deemed to be an original but all of which taken together shall constitute one and the same agreement, and any such executed counterpart may be delivered by transmission of the manually signed document by facsimile transmission or in "pdf" form delivered by electronic mail, and such facsimile or "pdf" representation of such manual signature shall constitute execution thereof.
5. Governing Law; Jurisdiction. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the internal laws of the State of New York (i.e., without regard to its conflicts of law rules). All disputes arising out of or related to this Agreement, including, without limitation, any dispute relating to the interpretation, meaning or effect of any provision hereof, will be resolved in the Bankruptcy Court and the parties hereto will each submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Bankruptcy Court for the purposes of adjudicating any such dispute, to the extent the jurisdiction of the Bankruptcy Court is applicable. If the jurisdiction of the Bankruptcy Court is not applicable, any legal action, suit or proceeding arising out of or relating to this Agreement, each and every agreement and instrument contemplated hereby or the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby shall be instituted in any Federal court of the Southern District of New York.

6. No Modifications. No modification of this Agreement shall be binding unless in writing and signed by the Party or Parties against which it is sought to be enforced.

and the Court having entered an order approving the bidding procedures and granting certain related relief on [____], 2015 [Docket No. ____] (the “Quirky Bidding Procedures Order”); and an auction having been conducted in accordance with the Quirky Bidding Procedures Order (the “Auction”); and the Buyer having submitted the highest or otherwise best offer for the Quirky Assets; and the Court having conducted a hearing on the Motion on [____], 2015 (the “Sale Hearing”) at which time all interested parties were offered an opportunity to be heard with respect to the Motion; and the Court having reviewed and considered the Motion, the Quirky Agreement, the Quirky Bidding Procedures Order, the record of the hearing before the Court on [____], 2015 at which the Quirky Bidding Procedures Order was approved; and all objections to the Sale of Quirky Assets and the Quirky Agreement filed in accordance with the Quirky Bidding Procedures Order; and the appearance of all interested parties and all responses and objections to the Motion having been duly noted in the record of the Sale Hearing; and upon the record of the Sale Hearing, and having heard statements of counsel and the evidence presented in support of the relief requested in the Motion at the Sale Hearing; and upon all of the proceedings had before the Court, and all objections and responses to the relief requested in the Motion having been heard and overruled, continued or resolved on the terms set forth in this Order, and it appearing that due notice of the Motion, the Quirky Agreement, the Quirky

Bidding Procedures Order and the Auction having been provided; and it appearing that the relief requested in the Motion is in the best interests of the Debtors, their estates, their creditors and all other parties in interest; and it appearing that the Court has jurisdiction over this matter; and it further appearing that the legal and factual bases set forth in the Motion and at the Sale Hearing establish just cause for the relief granted herein; and after due deliberation thereon,

THE COURT EXPRESSLY FINDS AS FOLLOWS:³

I. Jurisdiction, Venue, and Final Order

A. This Court has jurisdiction to hear and determine the Motion pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1334. This is a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b)(2). Venue is proper in this District and in this Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409.

B. This Order constitutes a final and appealable order within the meaning of 28 U.S.C. § 158(a). Notwithstanding Bankruptcy Rules 6004(h) and 6006(d) and 7062, and to the extent necessary under Bankruptcy Rule 9014 and Rule 54(b) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, as made applicable by Bankruptcy Rule 7054, this Court expressly finds that there is no just reason for delay in the implementation of this Order and expressly directs entry of this Order as set forth herein.

II. Notice of the Sale of Quirky Assets, Quirky Agreement, Sale Hearing, Auction and the Cure Amounts

C. On September 22, 2015 (the "Petition Date"), each of the Debtors commenced a case by filing a voluntary petition for relief under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code (the "Chapter 11 Cases"). Since the Petition Date, the Debtors have continued in possession and management of their businesses and properties as debtors-in-possession pursuant to sections 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code.

D. As evidenced by the affidavits of service previously filed with this Court, and based on the representations of counsel at the Sale Hearing, due, proper, timely, adequate and sufficient notice of the Motion, the Auction, the Sale Hearing, the Quirky Agreement and the sale of Quirky Assets has been provided in accordance with sections 102(1), 363 and 365 of the Bankruptcy Code, Bankruptcy Rules 2002, 6004, 6006 and 9014, and Local Rules 2002-1 and 6004-1. The Debtors have complied with all obligations to provide notice of the Motion, the Auction, the Sale Hearing, the Quirky Agreement and the sale of Quirky Assets as required by the Quirky Bidding Procedures Order. The aforementioned notices are good, sufficient and appropriate under the circumstances, and no other or further notice of the Motion, the Auction, the Sale Hearing, the Quirky Agreement or the sale of Quirky Assets is or shall be required.

E. A reasonable opportunity to object or to be heard regarding the relief requested in the Motion was afforded to all interested persons and entities.

F. In accordance with the Quirky Bidding Procedures Order, the Debtors have served a notice (as amended, modified or otherwise supplemented from time to time, the "Assumption and Assignment Notice") of the potential assumption and assignment of the Assumed Contracts and of the proposed amounts necessary to cure monetary defaults under the Assumed Contracts (the "Cure Amounts") upon each non-Debtor counterparty to an Assumed Contract. As evidenced by the affidavits of service previously filed with this Court, and based on the representations of Debtors' counsel at the Sale Hearing, the service and provision of the Assumption and Assignment Notice was good, sufficient and appropriate under the circumstances and no further notice is or shall be required in respect of assumption and assignment of the Assumed Contracts or establishing a Cure Amount for the respective Assumed Contracts.

G. Non-Debtor counterparties to the Assumed Contracts have had an adequate opportunity to object to or to be heard regarding assumption and assignment of the applicable Assumed Contracts and the Cure Amount set forth in the Assumption and Assignment Notice (including objections related to the adequate assurance of future performance and objections based on whether applicable law excuses the non-Debtor counterparty from accepting performance by, or rendering performance to, the Buyer for purposes of section 365(c)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code). The deadline to file an objection to the assumption and assignment to the Buyer of any Assumed Contract (a "Contract Objection") has expired, and to the extent any such party timely filed a Contract Objection, all such Contract Objections have been resolved, withdrawn, overruled, or continued to a later hearing by agreement of the parties. To the extent that any such party did not timely file a Contract Objection by the Contract Objection deadline, such party is deemed to have consented to (i) the assumption and assignment of the Assumed Contracts pursuant to the terms of this Order; and (ii) the proposed Cure Amount set forth on the Assumption and Assignment Notice.

III. Marketing Process

H. As demonstrated by the evidence proffered or adduced at the Sale Hearing and the representations of counsel at the Sale Hearing, the Debtors and their professionals have complied in all respects with the Quirky Bidding Procedures Order. The Debtors and their professionals have, under the circumstances, adequately and appropriately marketed the Quirky Assets. The bidding process was duly noticed and conducted in a diligent, non-collusive, fair and good faith manner, and the bidding process set forth in the Quirky Bidding Procedures Order afforded a full, fair and reasonable opportunity for any person or entity to qualify as a bidder, participate in the Auction and to make a higher or otherwise better offer to purchase the Quirky Assets. The Debtors (i) provided potential purchasers, upon request, sufficient information to enable them to make an informed judgment on whether to bid on the Quirky Assets, and (ii) considered any bids submitted on or before the deadline established by the Court for the submission of bids.

I. The Buyer is the Successful Bidder for the Quirky Assets in accordance with the Quirky Bidding Procedures Order. The Buyer and its representatives have complied in all respects with the Quirky Bidding Procedures Order and all other applicable orders of this Court in negotiating and entering into the Quirky Agreement, and the sale and the Quirky Agreement likewise comply with the Quirky Bidding Procedures Order and all other applicable orders of this Court.

IV. Highest or Otherwise Best Offer; Business Judgment

J. The Quirky Agreement, including the form and total consideration to be realized by the Debtors under the Quirky Agreement, (i) constitutes the highest or otherwise best offer received by the Debtors for the Quirky Assets; (ii) is fair and reasonable; and (iii) is in the best interests of the Debtors, their estates, their creditors and all other parties in interest.

K. The Debtors' determination that the consideration provided by the Buyer under the Quirky Agreement constitutes the highest or otherwise best offer for the Quirky Assets constitutes a valid and sound exercise of the Debtors' business judgment.

L. Consistent with their fiduciary duties, the Debtors have demonstrated good, sufficient and sound business reasons and justifications for entering into the sale of Quirky Assets and the performance of their obligations under the Quirky Agreement, including, but not limited to, the fact that (i) the consideration provided by the Buyer under the Quirky Agreement will provide a greater recovery for the Debtors' estates than would be provided by any other available alternative, including a separate liquidation of the Quirky Assets; and (ii) unless the sale is concluded expeditiously as provided for in the Motion and pursuant to the Quirky Agreement, recoveries of creditors will be diminished.

V. Good Faith; Arms' Length Sale

M. The sale process engaged in by the Debtors, including, without limitation, the Quirky Bidding Procedures set forth in the Quirky Bidding Procedures Order and the negotiation of the Quirky Agreement, was at arms' length, non-collusive, in good faith, for fair value and substantively and procedurally fair to all parties.

N. The Debtors, the Buyer and their respective representatives have complied, in good faith, in all respects with the Quirky Bidding Procedures Order.

O. The Buyer is a good faith buyer within the meaning of section 363(m) of the Bankruptcy Code, and is therefore entitled to the full protection of that provision, and otherwise has proceeded in good faith in all respects in connection with these proceedings. None of the Debtors or the Buyer has engaged in any conduct that would prevent the application of section 363(m) of the Bankruptcy Code.

P. The Quirky Agreement and the sale of Quirky Assets contemplated thereunder were proposed, negotiated and entered into by and among the Debtors and the Buyer without collusion, and none of the Debtors or the Buyer has engaged in any conduct that would cause or permit the Quirky Agreement or the sale of Quirky Assets to be avoided, or costs or damages to be imposed, under section 363(n) of the Bankruptcy Code.

Q. Neither the Buyer nor any of its affiliates, present or contemplated members, officers, directors, shareholders or any of their respective successors and assigns is an "insider" of any of the Debtors, as that term is defined in section 101(31) of the Bankruptcy Code. No common identity of directors or controlling shareholders exists between the Debtors and the Buyer.

R. The Quirky Agreement was not entered into, and none of the Debtors or the Buyer has entered into the Quirky Agreement or proposes to consummate the sale of Quirky Assets, for the purpose of hindering, delaying or defrauding the Debtors' present or future creditors. None of the Debtors or the Buyer is entering into the Quirky Agreement, or proposing to consummate the sale of Quirky Assets, fraudulently, for the purpose of statutory and common law fraudulent conveyance and fraudulent transfer claims whether under the Bankruptcy Code or under the laws of the United States, any state, territory, possession thereof or the District of Columbia or any other applicable jurisdiction with laws substantially similar to the foregoing.

S. The form and total consideration to be realized by the Debtors under the Quirky Agreement constitutes fair value, fair, full and adequate consideration, reasonably equivalent value and reasonable market value for the Quirky Assets.

VI. Corporate Authority

T. The Debtors (i) have full corporate or other power to execute, deliver and perform their obligations under the Quirky Agreement and the sale of Quirky Assets contemplated thereby, and entry into the Quirky Agreement has been duly and validly authorized by all necessary corporate or similar action; (ii) have all of the corporate or other power and authority necessary to consummate the sale of Quirky Assets contemplated by the Quirky Agreement; and (iii) have taken all actions necessary to authorize and approve the Quirky Agreement and the sale of Quirky Assets contemplated thereby. No consents or approvals, other than those expressly provided for herein or in the Quirky Agreement, are required for the Debtors to consummate such sale of Quirky Assets.

VII. Section 363 Is Satisfied

U. The Debtors have, to the extent necessary, satisfied the requirements of section 363(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code. Accordingly, appointment of a consumer privacy ombudsman pursuant to sections 363(b)(1) or 332 of the Bankruptcy Code is not required with respect to the relief requested in the Motion.

V. The Quirky Assets constitute property of the Debtors' estates and exclusive title thereto is presently vested in the Debtors' estates within the meaning of section 541(a) of the Bankruptcy Code.

W. The sale of all Quirky Assets to the Buyer under the terms of the Quirky Agreement meets the applicable provisions of section 363(f) of the Bankruptcy Code such that the sale of the Quirky Assets will be free and clear of any and all Claims, and except as expressly provided in the Quirky Agreement with respect to Assumed Liabilities, the (i) transfer of the Quirky Assets to the Buyer and (ii) assumption by and/or assignment to the Buyer of the Assumed Contracts will be free and clear of all Claims and will not subject the Buyer or any of the Buyer's assets to any liability for any Claims whatsoever (including, without limitation, under any theory of equitable law, antitrust, setoff, or successor or transferee liability). All holders of Claims who did not object, or withdrew their objections to the sale of Quirky Assets, are deemed to have consented to the sale of Quirky Assets pursuant to section 363(f)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code. All holders of Claims are adequately protected – thus satisfying section 363(e) of the Bankruptcy Code – by having their Claims, if any, attach to the proceeds of the sale of Quirky Assets ultimately attributable to the property against or in which they assert a Claim or other specifically dedicated funds, in the same order of priority and with the same validity, force and effect that such Claim holder had prior to the sale of Quirky Assets, subject to any rights, claims and defenses of the Debtors or their estates, as applicable, or as otherwise provided herein; provided, however, that setoff rights will be extinguished to the extent there is no longer mutuality after the consummation of the sale of Quirky Assets.

X. The Buyer would not have entered into the Quirky Agreement and would not consummate the sale of Quirky Assets, thus adversely affecting the Debtors, their estates, creditors, employees and other parties in interest, if the sale of the Quirky Assets was not free and clear of all Claims or if the Buyer would, or in the future could, be liable for any Claims, including, without limitation and as applicable, certain liabilities that expressly are not assumed by the Buyer as set forth in the Quirky Agreement or in this Order. The Buyer asserts that it will not consummate the sale of Quirky Assets unless the Quirky Agreement specifically provides, and this Court specifically orders, that none of the Buyer, its assets or the Quirky Assets will have any liability whatsoever with respect to, or be required to satisfy in any manner, whether at law or in equity, whether by payment, setoff or otherwise, directly or indirectly, any (i) Claim, or (ii) any successor or transferee liability for any of the Debtors other than the Assumed Liabilities.

Y. The Buyer is not a successor to the Debtors or their respective estates by reason of any theory of law or equity, and neither the Buyer nor any of its affiliates shall assume or in any way be responsible for any liability or obligation of any of the Debtors or their respective estates, except as otherwise expressly provided in the Quirky Agreement or this Order. The Buyer is not a continuation of the Debtors or their respective estates and there is no continuity between the Buyer and the Debtors. The Buyer is not holding itself out to the public as a continuation of the Debtors or their respective estates and the sale of Quirky Assets do not amount to a consolidation, merger or de facto merger of the Buyer and the Debtors.

Z. The transfer of the Quirky Assets to the Buyer under the Quirky Agreement will be a legal, valid and effective transfer of all of the legal, equitable and beneficial right, title and interest in and to the Quirky Assets free and clear of all Claims (other than Assumed Liabilities). The transfer of the Quirky Assets to the Buyer will vest the Buyer with good and marketable title to the Quirky Assets.

AA. There is no legal or equitable reason to delay the sale of Quirky Assets. The sale of Quirky Assets must be approved and consummated promptly in order to preserve the value of the Debtors' assets. All factual predicates to the waiver of any stay of this Order under Bankruptcy Rules 6004(h) and 6006(d) have been satisfied.

BB. The Debtors have demonstrated both (i) good, sufficient and sound business judgment, purposes and justifications; and (ii) compelling circumstances for the Sale of Quirky Assets pursuant to section 363(b) of the Bankruptcy Code prior to, and outside of, a plan of reorganization in that, among other things, absent the immediate consummation of the sale of Quirky Assets, the value of the Debtors' assets will be harmed. To maximize the value of the Quirky Assets, it is essential that the sale of Quirky Assets occur within the timeframe set forth in the Quirky Agreement. Time is of the essence in consummating the sale of Quirky Assets.

CC. Entry into the Quirky Agreement and consummation of the sale of Quirky Assets do not constitute a sub rosa chapter 11 plan.

VIII. Assumption and Assignment of the Assumed Contracts

DD. The assumption and assignment of the Assumed Contracts (as such Assumed Contracts may be amended, supplemented or otherwise modified prior to assumption and assignment without further order of the Court with the consent of the Debtors, the contract counterparty and the Buyer) that are designated for assumption and assignment pursuant to the terms of this Order and the Quirky Agreement is integral to the Quirky Agreement, does not constitute unfair discrimination, is in the best interests of the Debtors, their estates, their creditors and all other parties in interest, and represents the reasonable exercise of sound and prudent business judgment by the Debtors.

EE. No section of any Assumed Contract which purports to prohibit, restrict, or condition the use, consideration or assignment of any such Assumed Contract in connection with the Sale of Quirky Assets shall have any force or effect.

FF. The Debtors have met all requirements of section 365(b) of the Bankruptcy Code for each of the Assumed Contracts. The Debtors have (a) cured and/or provided adequate assurance of cure of any default existing prior to the Closing under all of the Assumed Contracts, within the meaning of section 365(b)(1)(A) of the Bankruptcy Code; and (b) provided compensation or adequate assurance of compensation to any counterparty for actual pecuniary loss to such party resulting from a default prior to the Closing under any of the Assumed Contracts, within the meaning of section 365(b)(1)(B) of the Bankruptcy Code. Each of the Assumed Contracts is free and clear of all Claims against the Buyer.

GG. The Buyer has demonstrated adequate assurance of its future performance under the relevant Assumed Contracts within the meaning of sections 365(b)(1)(C) and 365(f)(2)(B) of the Bankruptcy Code. Pursuant to section 365(f) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Assumed Contracts to be assumed and assigned under the Quirky Agreement shall be assigned and transferred to, and remain in full force and effect for the benefit of, the Buyer notwithstanding any provision in the contracts or other restrictions prohibiting their assignment or transfer.

HH. No monetary or non-monetary defaults exist in the Debtors' performance under the Assumed Contracts as of the date of this Order other than the failure to pay amounts equal to the Cure Amount or defaults that are not required to be cured as contemplated in section 365(b)(1)(A) of the Bankruptcy Code. To the extent applicable, the Cure Amount for each of the Assumed Contracts shall be paid in accordance with the terms set forth in the Quirky Agreement.

THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT:

IX. General Provisions

1. The Motion is granted to the extent provided herein.

2. Any objections to the Motion or the relief requested therein that have not been withdrawn, waived or settled, and all reservations of rights included therein, are hereby overruled on the merits and denied with prejudice. All persons and entities given notice of the Motion that failed to timely object thereto are deemed to consent to the relief sought therein, including, without limitation, all non-Debtor counterparties to the Assumed Contracts.

3. The findings and conclusions set forth herein constitute the Court's findings of fact and conclusions of law pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 7052, made applicable to this proceeding pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9014. To the extent any of the findings of fact constitute conclusions of law, they are adopted as such. To the extent any of the following conclusions of law constitute findings of fact, they are adopted as such.

X. Approval of the Quirky Agreement

4. The Quirky Agreement, all of the terms and conditions thereof, and consummation of the sale of Quirky Assets contemplated therein, are authorized and approved in all respects pursuant to section 363(b) of the Bankruptcy Code. The failure specifically to include any particular provision of the Quirky Agreement in this Order shall not diminish or impair the effectiveness of such provision, it being the intent of the Court that the Quirky Agreement be authorized and approved in its entirety.

5. The Debtors and their respective officers, employees and agents are authorized and directed to (a) take any and all actions necessary, appropriate or reasonably requested by the Buyer to perform, consummate, implement and close the Sale of Quirky Assets, including, without limitation, (i) the sale to the Buyer of all Quirky Assets, in accordance with the terms and conditions set forth in the Quirky Agreement and this Order, and (ii) executing, acknowledging and delivering such deeds, assignments, conveyances and other assurance, documents and instruments of transfer and taking any action for purposes of assigning, transferring, granting, conveying and confirming to the Buyer, or reducing to possession, the Quirky Assets, including any further cooperation after the Closing pursuant to the Quirky Agreement; and (b) to assume and assign any and all Assumed Contracts. The Debtors are further authorized to pay, without further order of this Court, whether before, at or after the Closing, any expenses or costs that are required to be paid in order to consummate the Sale of Quirky Assets or perform their obligations under the Quirky Agreement. Any amounts, [including the Break-Up Fee and the Expense Reimbursement Amount,] that become payable by the Debtors to the Buyer pursuant to the Quirky Agreement (and related agreements executed in connection therewith) shall (i) constitute allowed administrative expenses of the Debtors' estates under sections 503(b)(1) and 507(a)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code (to the extent set forth in the Quirky Bidding Procedures Order, the Quirky Agreement and such related agreements); (ii) be treated with such priority if the Chapter 11 Cases convert to cases under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code; and (iii) not be discharged, modified or otherwise affected by any reorganization plan for the Debtors, except by written agreement with the Buyer (such agreement to be provided in the Buyer's sole discretion) and shall be paid under the Carve Out from the sale proceeds.

6. All persons and entities are prohibited and enjoined from taking any action to prevent, adversely affect or interfere with, or which would be inconsistent with, the ability of the Debtors to transfer the Quirky Assets to the Buyer in accordance with the Quirky Agreement and this Order.

XI. Sale and Transfer Free and Clear of Claims

7. Except as otherwise expressly provided in the Quirky Agreement and the terms of this Order with respect to Assumed Liabilities, pursuant to sections 105(a) and 363(f) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Quirky Assets shall be sold free and clear of all claims, liens (including, without limitation, any statutory lien on real and personal property and any and all “liens” as that term is defined and used in the Bankruptcy Code, including section 101(37) thereof), liabilities, interests, rights and encumbrances, including, without limitation, the following: all mortgages, restrictions (including, without limitation, any restriction on the use, voting rights, transfer rights, claims for receipt of income or other exercise of any attributes of ownership), hypothecations, charges, indentures, loan agreements, instruments, leases, licenses, options, deeds of trust, security interests, equity interests, conditional sale rights or other title retention agreements, pledges, judgments, demands, rights of first refusal, consent rights, offsets, contract rights, rights of setoff, recoupment rights, rights of recovery, reimbursement rights, contribution claims, indemnity rights, exoneration rights, product liability claims, alter-ego claims, environmental rights and claims (including, without limitation, toxic tort claims), labor rights and claims, employment rights and claims, pension rights and claims, tax claims, regulatory violations by any governmental entity, decrees of any court or foreign or domestic governmental entity, charges of any kind or nature, debts arising in any way in connection with any agreements, acts, or failures to act, reclamation claims, obligation claims, demands, guaranties, option rights or claims, rights, contractual or other commitment rights and claims, rights of licensees or sublicensees (if any) under section 365(n) of the Bankruptcy Code or any similar statute, rights of tenants and subtenants (if any) under section 365(h) of the Bankruptcy Code or any similar statute, and all other matters of any kind and nature, whether known or unknown, choate or inchoate, filed or unfiled, scheduled or unscheduled, noticed or unnoticed, recorded or unrecorded, perfected or unperfected, allowed or disallowed, contingent or non-contingent, liquidated or unliquidated, matured or unmatured, material or non-material, disputed or undisputed, whether arising prior to or subsequent to the commencement of these Chapter 11 Cases (but, for the avoidance of doubt, in each case arising from the ownership of the Quirky Assets or the operation of the business prior to the Closing Date), and whether imposed by agreement, understanding, law, equity or otherwise, including claims otherwise arising under any theory, law or doctrine of successor liability or related theories (all of the foregoing collectively being referred to in this Order as "Claims", and, as used in this Order, the term "Claims" includes, without limitation, any and all "claims" as that term is defined and used in the Bankruptcy Code, including section 101(5) thereof), with all such Claims to attach to the proceeds of the Sale of Quirky Assets to be received by the Debtors with the same validity, force, priority and effect which they now have as against the Quirky Assets, subject to any claims and defenses the Debtors may possess with respect thereto; provided, however, that setoff rights will be extinguished to the extent there is no longer mutuality after the consummation of the Sale of Quirky Assets.

8. At Closing, all of the Debtors' right, title and interest in and to, and possession of, the Quirky Assets shall be immediately vested in the Buyer pursuant to sections 105(a), 363(b), 363(f) and 365 of the Bankruptcy Code free and clear of any and all Claims, except for Assumed Liabilities, if any. Such transfer shall constitute a legal, valid, binding and effective transfer of, and shall vest the Buyer with good and marketable title to, the Quirky Assets. All person or entities, presently or on or after the Closing, in possession of some or all of the Quirky Assets are directed to surrender possession of the Quirky Assets to the Buyer or its designees on the Closing or at such time thereafter as the Buyer may request.

9. This Order is and shall be binding upon and govern the acts of all entities, including, without limitation, all filing agents, filing officers, title agents, title companies, recorders of mortgages, recorders of deeds, registrars of deeds, registrars of patents, trademarks or other intellectual property, administrative agencies, governmental departments, secretaries of state, federal and local officials and all other persons and entities who may be required by operation of law, the duties of their office or contract, to accept, file, register or otherwise record or release any documents or instruments; and each of the foregoing persons and entities is hereby authorized and directed to accept for filing any and all of the documents and instruments necessary and appropriate to consummate the Sale of Quirky Assets contemplated by the Quirky Agreement. The Quirky Assets are sold free and clear of any reclamation rights.

10. Except as otherwise expressly provided in the Quirky Agreement with respect to the Assumed Liabilities, if any, all persons and entities (and their respective successors and assigns), including, but not limited to, all debt security holders, equity security holders, affiliates, governmental, tax and regulatory authorities, lenders, customers, vendors, employees, trade creditors, litigation claimants and other creditors holding Claims against the Debtors or the Quirky Assets arising under or out of, in connection with, or in any way relating to, the Debtors, the Debtors' predecessors or affiliates, the Quirky Assets, the ownership, sale or operation of the Quirky Assets and the business prior to Closing or the transfer of the Quirky Assets to the Buyer, are hereby forever barred, estopped and permanently enjoined from asserting such Claims against the Buyer, its successors or assigns, their property or the Quirky Assets. Following the Closing, no holder of any Claim shall interfere with the Buyer's title to or use and enjoyment of the Quirky Assets based on or related to any such Claim, or based on any action the Debtors may take in the Chapter 11 Cases.

11. If any person or entity that has filed financing statements, mortgages, mechanic's Claims, lis pendens or other documents or agreements evidencing Claims against or in the Quirky Assets shall not have delivered to the Debtors prior to the Closing of the Sale of Quirky Assets, in proper form for filing and executed by the appropriate parties, termination statements, instruments of satisfaction, releases of all Claims (other than the Assumed Liabilities, if any) that the person or entity has with respect to the Quirky Assets, (a) the Debtors are hereby authorized and directed to execute and file such statements, instruments, releases and other documents on behalf of the person or entity with respect to the Quirky Assets; (b) the Buyer is hereby authorized to file, register or otherwise record a certified copy of this Order, which, once filed, registered or otherwise recorded, shall constitute conclusive evidence of the release of all such Claims against the Buyer and the applicable Quirky Assets; and (c) the Buyer may seek in this Court or any other court to compel appropriate parties to execute termination statements, instruments of satisfaction and releases of all such Claims with respect to the Quirky Assets. This Order is deemed to be in recordable form sufficient to be placed in the filing or recording system of each and every federal, state, or local government agency, department or office. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the provisions of this Order authorizing the sale and assignment of the Quirky Assets free and clear of Claims shall be self-executing, and none of the Debtors nor the Buyer shall be required to execute or file releases, termination statements, assignments, consents or other instruments in order to effectuate, consummate and implement the provisions of this Order.

12. To the maximum extent permitted under applicable law, the Buyer shall be authorized, as of the Closing Date, to operate under any license, permit, registration and governmental authorization or approval of the Debtors with respect to the Quirky Assets, and all such licenses, permits, registrations and governmental authorizations and approvals are deemed to have been, and hereby are, directed to be transferred to the Buyer as of the Closing Date.

13. No governmental unit (as defined in section 101(27) of the Bankruptcy Code) or any representative thereof may deny, revoke, suspend or refuse to renew any permit, license or similar grant relating to the operation of the Quirky Assets on account of the filing or pendency of the Chapter 11 Cases or the consummation of the Sale of Quirky Assets to the extent that any such action by a governmental unit or any representative thereof would violate section 525 of the Bankruptcy Code.

XII. No Successor or Transferee Liability

14. The Buyer shall not be deemed, as a result of any action taken in connection with the Quirky Agreement, the consummation of the Sale of Quirky Assets contemplated by the Quirky Agreement, or the transfer or operation of the Quirky Assets to (a) be a legal successor, or otherwise be deemed a successor to the Debtors (other than with respect to any obligations as an assignee under the Assumed Contracts arising after the Closing); (b) have, de facto or otherwise, merged with or into the Debtors; or (c) be an alter ego or a mere continuation or substantial continuation of the Debtors or the enterprise(s) of the Debtors, including, without limitation, within the meaning of any foreign, federal, state or local revenue law, pension law, the Employee Retirement Income Security Act, the Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act ("COBRA"), WARN (defined below), CERCLA (defined below), the Fair Labor Standard Act, Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 (as amended), the Age Discrimination and Employment Act of 1967 (as amended), the Federal Rehabilitation Act of 1973 (as amended), the National Labor Relations Act, 29 U.S.C. § 151, et seq. (the "NLRA"), environmental liabilities, debts, claims or obligations arising from conditions first existing on or prior to the Closing Date (including, without limitation, the presence of hazardous, toxic, polluting, or contaminating substances or wastes), which may be asserted on any basis, including, without limitation, under CERCLA, any liabilities, debts or obligations of or required to be paid by the Debtors for any taxes of any kind for any period, labor, employment, or other law, rule or regulation (including, without limitation, filing requirements under any such laws, rules or regulations), or under any products liability law or doctrine with respect to the Debtors' liability under such law, rule or regulation or doctrine.

15. Other than as expressly set forth in the Quirky Agreement with respect to Assumed Liabilities, if any, the Buyer shall not have any responsibility for (a) any liability or other obligation of the Debtors or related to the Quirky Assets or (b) any Claims against the Debtors or any of their predecessors or affiliates. The Buyer shall have no liability whatsoever with respect to the Debtors' (or their predecessors' or affiliates') respective businesses or operations or any of the Debtors' (or their predecessors' or affiliates') obligations (as described herein, "Successor or Transferee Liability") based, in whole or part, directly or indirectly, on any theory of successor or vicarious liability of any kind or character, or based upon any theory of antitrust, environmental, successor or transferee liability, de facto merger or substantial continuity, labor and employment or products liability, whether known or unknown as of the Closing Date, now existing or hereafter arising, asserted or unasserted, fixed or contingent, liquidated or unliquidated, including liabilities on account of any taxes arising, accruing or payable under, out of, in connection with, or in any way relating to the operation of the Quirky Assets prior to the Closing. The Buyer shall have no liability or obligation under the WARN Act (29 U.S.C. §§ 2101 et seq.) ("WARN") or the Comprehensive Environmental Response Compensation and Liability Act ("CERCLA"), or any foreign, federal, state or local labor, employment, or environmental law whether of similar import or otherwise by virtue of the Buyer's purchase of the Quirky Assets or assumption of the Assumed Liabilities, if any, by the Buyer.

16. Except as otherwise provided in the Quirky Agreement, nothing in this Order or the Quirky Agreement shall require the Buyer to (a) continue or maintain in effect, or assume any liability in respect of any employee, collective bargaining agreement, pension, welfare, fringe benefit or any other benefit plan, trust arrangement or other agreements to which the Debtors are a party or have any responsibility therefor including, without limitation, medical, welfare and pension benefits payable after retirement or other termination of employment; or (b) assume any responsibility as a fiduciary, plan sponsor or otherwise, for making any contribution to, or in respect of the funding, investment or administration of any employee benefit plan, arrangement or agreement (including but not limited to pension plans) or the termination of any such plan, arrangement or agreement.

17. Effective upon the Closing Date, all persons and entities are forever prohibited and enjoined from commencing or continuing in any matter any action or other proceeding, whether in law or equity, in any judicial, administrative, arbitral or other proceeding against the Buyer, or its assets (including the Quirky Assets), with respect to any (a) Claim (other than an Assumed Liability) or (b) Successor or Transferee Liability including, without limitation, the following actions with respect to clauses (a) and (b): (i) commencing or continuing any action or other proceeding pending or threatened; (ii) enforcing, attaching, collecting or recovering in any manner any judgment, award, decree or order; (iii) creating, perfecting or enforcing any lien, claim, interest or encumbrance; (iv) asserting any setoff, right of subrogation or recoupment of any kind; (v) commencing or continuing any action, in any manner or place, that does not comply with, or is inconsistent with, the provisions of this Order or other orders of this Court, or the agreements or actions contemplated or taken in respect hereof; or (vi) revoking, terminating or failing or refusing to renew any license, permit or authorization to operate any of the Quirky Assets or conduct any of the businesses operated with such assets.

XIII. Good Faith; Arms' Length Sale

18. The Quirky Agreement has been negotiated and executed, and the Sale of Quirky Assets contemplated by the Quirky Agreement are and have been undertaken, by Debtors, the Buyer and their respective representatives at arms' length, without collusion and in "good faith," as that term is defined in section 363(m) of the Bankruptcy Code. Accordingly, the reversal or modification on appeal of the authorization provided herein to consummate the sale shall not affect the validity of the Sale of Quirky Assets (including the assumption and assignment of the Assumed Contracts), unless such authorization and consummation of the sale are duly and properly stayed pending such appeal. The Buyer is a good faith purchaser within the meaning of section 363(m) of the Bankruptcy Code and, as such, is entitled to the full protections of section 363(m) of the Bankruptcy Code.

19. None of the Debtors or the Buyer has engaged in any conduct that would cause or permit the Quirky Agreement or the Sale of Quirky Assets to be avoided or costs, or damages or costs, to be imposed, under section 363(n) of the Bankruptcy Code. The consideration provided by the Buyer for the Quirky Assets under the Quirky Agreement is fair and reasonable, and the Sale of Quirky Assets may not be avoided under section 363(n) of the Bankruptcy Code.

XIV. Assumption and Assignment of Assumed Contracts

20. Pursuant to sections 105(a) and 365 of the Bankruptcy Code, the Debtors are authorized and directed to assume and assign to the Buyer each of the Assumed Contracts upon the Closing of the Sale of Quirky Assets, free and clear of all Claims (other than Assumed Liabilities). The payment of the Cure Amounts pursuant to the Quirky Agreement (a) cures all monetary and non-monetary defaults existing thereunder as of the Closing Date; (b) compensates the applicable non-Debtor counterparties for any actual pecuniary loss resulting from such default; and (c) together with the assumption of the Assumed Contracts by the Debtors and the assignment of the Assumed Contracts to the Buyer, constitutes adequate assurance of future performance thereof.

21. To the extent that any counterparty to an Assumed Contract did not timely file a Contract Objection by the Contract Objection deadline, such counterparty is deemed to have consented to (i) the assumption and assignment of the Assumed Contract pursuant to the terms of this Order; and (ii) the proposed Cure Amounts set forth on the Assumption and Assignment Notice.

22. Any provision in any Assumed Contract that prohibits or conditions the assignment of such Assumed Contract or allows the non-Debtor counterparty to such Assumed Contract to impose any penalty, fee, rent increase, profit sharing arrangement or other condition on renewal or extension, or to modify any term or condition upon the assignment of such Assumed Contract, constitutes an unenforceable anti-assignment provision that is void and of no force and effect. All other requirements and conditions under sections 363 and 365 of the Bankruptcy Code for the assumption by the Debtors and assignment to the Buyer of the Assumed Contracts have been satisfied. Upon the Closing, in accordance with sections 363 and 365 of the Bankruptcy Code, the Buyer shall be fully and irrevocably vested with all right, title and interest of the Debtors under the Assumed Contracts, and such Assumed Contracts shall remain in full force and effect for the benefit of the Buyer.

23. Upon the Closing and the payment of the relevant Cure Amounts, the Buyer shall be deemed to be substituted for the Debtors as a party to the applicable Assumed Contracts, and the Debtors and their estates shall be released, pursuant to section 365(k) of the Bankruptcy Code, from any liability under the Assumed Contracts. There shall be no assignment fees, increases or any other fees charged to the Buyer or the Debtors as a result of the assumption and assignment of the Assumed Contracts.

24. Each non-Debtor counterparty to an Assumed Contract is forever barred, estopped, and permanently enjoined from asserting against the Debtors or the Buyer or their respective property (including, without limitation, the Quirky Assets) (i) any assignment fee, acceleration, default, breach or claim or pecuniary loss, or condition to assignment existing, arising or accruing as of the Closing Date or arising by reason of the Closing, including any breach related to or arising out of change-in-control in such Assumed Contracts, or any purported written or oral modification to the Assumed Contracts; or (ii) any claim, counterclaim, defense, breach, default, condition, setoff or other claim asserted or capable of being asserted against the Debtors existing as of the Closing Date or arising by reason of the Closing, except for Assumed Liabilities.

25. Other than the Assumed Contracts, if any, the Buyer assumed none of the Debtors' other contracts or leases and shall have no liability whatsoever thereunder.

26. Nothing in the Motion or this Order shall be deemed or construed as a waiver of any claims or causes of action that the Debtors or the Buyer have or may have against a non-Debtor counterparty to any Assumed Contract, whether or not such claims arise under, are related to the assumption of or are independent of the Assumed Contracts.

XV. Other Provisions

27. In connection with the Closing of the Sale of Quirky Assets, all proceeds shall be paid as described more fully in the [Final Order (I) Authorizing Debtors to Use Cash Collateral, (II) Granting Adequate Protection, and (III) Granting Certain Related Relief].

28. The requirements set forth in Bankruptcy Rules 6003(b), 6004 and 6006 and Local Bankruptcy Rules 6004-1 and 9013-1 have been satisfied or otherwise deemed waived.

29. The Buyer shall not be required to seek or obtain relief from the automatic stay under section 362 of the Bankruptcy Code to give any notice permitted by the Quirky Agreement or to enforce any of its remedies under the Quirky Agreement or any other sale-related document. The automatic stay imposed by section 362 of the Bankruptcy Code is modified solely to the extent necessary to implement the preceding sentence; provided however, that this Court shall retain exclusive jurisdiction over any and all disputes with respect thereto.

30. The provisions of this Order and the Quirky Agreement are non-severable and mutually dependent.

31. The Quirky Agreement and any related agreements, documents or other instruments may be modified, amended or supplemented by the parties thereto and in accordance with the terms thereof, without further order of the Court; provided that any such modification, amendment or supplement does not have a material adverse effect on the Debtors' estates.

32. The Court shall retain exclusive jurisdiction (for as long as the chapter 11 cases are open) to, among other things, interpret, implement, and enforce the terms and provisions of this Order and the Quirky Agreement, all amendments thereto and any waivers and consents thereunder and each of the agreements executed in connection therewith to which the Debtors are a party or which has been assigned by the Debtors to the Buyer, and to adjudicate, if necessary, any and all disputes concerning or relating in any way to the Sale of Quirky Assets. This Court retains jurisdiction to compel delivery of the Quirky Assets, to protect the Buyer and its assets, including the Quirky Assets, against any Claims and Successor and Transferee Liability and to enter orders, as appropriate, pursuant to sections 105(a), 363 or 365

(or other applicable provisions) of the Bankruptcy Code necessary to transfer the Quirky Assets and the Assumed Contracts to the Buyer. Buyer may at its election enforce this Order in any other court of competent jurisdiction in defense of any Claims asserted against it by third parties or similar issues.

33. As provided by Bankruptcy Rules 7062 and 9014, the terms and conditions of this Order shall be effective immediately upon entry and shall not be subject to the stay provisions contained in Bankruptcy Rules 6004(h) and 6006(d) or any similar rule that would delay the effectiveness of this Order. Time is of the essence in closing the sale and the Debtors and the Buyer intend to close the sale consummate the Sale of Quirky Assets as soon as possible. Therefore, any party objecting to this Order must exercise due diligence in filing an appeal and pursuing a stay or risk their appeal being foreclosed as moot.

34. This Order and the Quirky Agreement shall be binding in all respects upon all creditors of (whether known or unknown), and holders of equity interests in, any Debtor, any holders of Claims in, against or on all or any portion of the Quirky Assets, all non-Debtor counterparties to the Assumed Contracts, all successors and assigns of the Buyer, the Debtors and their affiliates and subsidiaries and any subsequent trustee appointed in the Chapter 11 Cases or upon a conversion to chapter 7 under the Bankruptcy Code, and shall not be subject to rejection. Nothing contained in any chapter 11 plan confirmed in the Chapter 11 Cases, any order confirming any such chapter 11 plan or any order approving wind-down or dismissal of the Chapter 11 Cases or any subsequent chapter 7 cases shall conflict with or derogate from the provisions of the Quirky Agreement or this Order, and to the extent of any conflict or derogation between this Order or the Quirky Agreement and such future plan or order, the terms of this Order and the Quirky Agreement shall control.

35. To the extent any provisions of this Order conflict with, or are otherwise inconsistent with, the terms and conditions of the Quirky Agreement or the Quirky Bidding Procedures Order, this Order shall govern and control.

upon all of the proceedings had before this Court and after due deliberation and sufficient cause appearing therefor,

IT IS HEREBY FOUND AND DETERMINED THAT:

A. Bidding Procedures. The Debtors have articulated good and sufficient reasons for authorizing and approving the bidding procedures attached hereto as Exhibit 1 (the “Quirky Bidding Procedures”), which are fair and reasonable and appropriate under the circumstances and designed to maximize recovery on, and realizable value of, the Quirky Assets.

B. Stalking Horse Bid Protections. The Debtors have demonstrated a compelling and sound business justification for authorizing the payment of a break-up fee and expense reimbursement (together, the “Bid Protections”) to a potential stalking horse bidder (the “Quirky Community Stalking Horse”) for the sale of Quirky Assets that includes the Quirky Community and Platform, including:

- i. the Bid Protections will be the product of negotiations among a potential stalking horse bidder and the Debtors, conducted in good faith and at arm’s length, and any transaction that culminates with a potential stalking horse bidder, in consultation with Comerica Bank, and their respective professionals to negotiate a transaction with a bidder who was prepared to pay the highest or otherwise best purchase price to date for the Quirky Assets to maximize the value of the Debtors estates;
- ii. the Bid Protections are an actual and necessary cost and expense of preserving the respective Debtors’ estates;
- iii. the Bid Protections are fair, reasonable and appropriate in light of, among other things, the size and nature of the potential sale of the Quirky Assets, notwithstanding that the any transaction with a stalking horse bidder is subject to higher or otherwise better offers, and the substantial benefits a potential stalking horse bidder will have provided to the Debtors, their estates and creditors, and all parties in interest herein, including, among other things, by increasing the likelihood that the best possible price for the Quirky Assets will be received;
- iv. the protections afforded to a stalking horse bidder by way of the Bid Protections will be material inducements for, and express conditions of, a stalking horse bidder’s willingness to enter into an agreement with the

Debtors, and will be necessary to ensure that a potential stalking horse bidder will continue to pursue any proposed agreement on terms acceptable to the Debtors in their sound business judgment, subject to competitive bidding; and

- v. the assurance of the payment of the Bid Protections has promoted more competitive bidding by inducing the stalking horse bidder's bid, which otherwise would not have been made, without which competitive bidding would be limited, and which may be the highest or otherwise best available offer for the Quirky Assets, induced the stalking horse bidder to conduct due diligence with respect to the Debtors' business, assets, operations and liabilities, and propose the sale of the Quirky Assets contemplated by the APA, including, among other things, submission of a bid that will serve as a minimum or floor bid on which all other bidders can rely and increases the likelihood that the final purchase price reflects the true value of the Quirky Assets.

C. Auction and Sale Notice. The form of Auction and Sale Notice attached hereto as Exhibit 2 is reasonably calculated to provide all interested parties with timely and proper notice of the proposed sale of the Quirky Assets, including: (i) the date, time and place of the Auction (if one is held); (ii) the Quirky Bidding Procedures and certain dates and deadlines related thereto; (iii) the Sale Objection Deadline and the date, time and place of the Sale Hearing; (iv) reasonably specific identification of Quirky Assets; (v) notification of any agreement between the Debtors and a stalking horse bidder that culminates before the Bid Deadline; (vi) instructions for promptly obtaining a copy of an agreement with a stalking horse bidder (if necessary); (vii) a simplified form purchase agreement that may be used for submitting a bid on one or more Products (the "Product Purchase Form"); and (viii) notice of the proposed assumption and assignment of Assumed Contracts to a stalking horse bidder pursuant to an agreement (or to another Successful Bidder arising from the Auction, if any) and the right, procedures and deadlines for objecting thereto. No other or further notice of the Auction and Sale Hearing shall be required.

D. Assumption Procedures. The Assumption and Assignment Notice are reasonably calculated to provide counterparties to the Assumed Contracts with proper notice of the intended assumption and assignment of their executory contracts, any cure amounts relating thereto and the Assumption and Assignment Procedures.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED THAT:

1. The Motion is GRANTED to the extent set forth herein.

The Preliminary Bid Documents shall be delivered to the following parties (collectively, the “Notice Parties”):

Debtors	Proposed Counsel to the Debtors
Quirky, Inc. 606 West 28 th Street New York, New York 10010 Attn: Charles Kwalwasser, Esq. Ed Kremer	Cooley LLP 1114 Avenue of the Americas New, York, New York 10036 Attn: Jeffrey L. Cohen, Esq. Michael A. Klein, Esq.

C. Access to Due Diligence.

The Debtors shall provide to each Potential Bidder, upon the request of the Potential Bidder and the execution of a Confidentiality Agreement in the form set forth in section B, reasonable due diligence information, as requested, as soon as reasonably practicable after such request. To the extent the Debtors provide any information to any Acceptable Bidder that they had not previously provided to the stalking horse bidder (if any), the Debtors shall promptly provide such information to the stalking horse bidder. The due diligence period will end on the Bid Deadline (as defined herein) and the Debtors shall have no obligation to furnish any due diligence information after the Bid Deadline.

No conditions relating to the completion of due diligence shall be permitted to exist after the Bid Deadline.

Each Acceptable Bidder shall be deemed to acknowledge and represent that it has had an opportunity to conduct any and all due diligence regarding the Quirky Assets and liabilities that are the subject of the Auction prior to making any such bids; that it has relied solely upon its own independent review, investigation and/or inspection of any documents and/or the Quirky Assets in making its bid; and that it did not rely upon any written or oral statements, representations, promises, warranties or guaranties whatsoever, whether express, implied, by operation of law or otherwise regarding the Debtors' assets or liabilities, or the completeness of any information provided in connection therewith, except as expressly stated herein. Neither the Debtors nor any of their employees, officers, directors, affiliates, subsidiaries, representatives, agents, advisors or professionals are responsible for, and shall bear no liability with respect to, any information obtained by Acceptable Bidders in connection with the Sale.

The Debtors have designated Hilco Streambank to coordinate all reasonable requests for additional information and due diligence access, including requests for the Microsoft Word version of the Stalking Horse Agreement (if applicable). following receipt thereof, a written, irrevocable offer that must be determined by the Debtors, in consultation with the Consultation Parties, to satisfy each of the following conditions:

- (a) Same or Better Terms/Identification of Assumed Contracts. To the extent that a Bid relates to Quirky Assets that are subject to a Stalking Horse Agreement, each Bid must be accompanied by clean and duly executed transaction documents (including schedules and exhibits thereto that identify with particularity which of the Debtors' contracts the Acceptable Bidder seeks to have assigned, along with a copy of the Stalking Horse Agreement (if any) that is marked to reflect the amendments and modifications from such agreement, which modifications, taken as a whole, may not be materially more burdensome to the Debtors than the Stalking Horse Agreement or inconsistent with these Quirky Bidding Procedures.
- (b) Product Purchase Form. To the extent that a bid relates to the Purchase of one or more Products, a Potential Bidder may submit the Product Purchase Form.
- (c) Bid Deposit. Each Bid must be accompanied by a 10% cash deposit of the proposed purchase price (the "Good Faith Deposit"), which shall be sent to counsel to the Debtors by wire transfer, which amount shall be deposited in an interest-bearing account.

- (i) Adequate Assurance Information. Each Bid must be accompanied by sufficient and adequate financial and other information (the “Adequate Assurance Information”) to demonstrate, to the satisfaction of the Debtors, following consultation with the Consultation Parties, that such Potential Bidder has the financial wherewithal and ability to consummate in the Sale of the Quirky Assets and the assumption of the Debtors’ liabilities as set forth in the Bid, including payment of any cure amount with respect to any contract that may be assigned with respect to the Sale. The Bid shall also identify a contact person that counterparties to any lease or contract may contact to obtain additional Adequate Assurance Information.
- (j) No Fees. Except with respect to the stalking horse bidder, the Bids must not be subject to any break-up fee, transaction fee, termination fee, expense reimbursement or any similar type of payment or reimbursement.

The Auction may be adjourned to a later date by the Debtors, in consultation with the Consultation Parties, by filing a notice of adjournment with the Court. No further notice of any such continuance will be required to be provided to any party.

E. Qualified Bids.

Bids, or a combination of one or more Bids, fulfilling all of the preceding requirements shall be deemed to be “Qualified Bids,” and those parties submitting Qualified Bids shall be deemed to be “Qualified Bidders.”

Within two (2) days after the Bid Deadline, the Debtors, in consultation with the Consultation Parties, shall determine which Potential Bidders are Qualified Bidders after consultation with their advisors and will notify the Potential Bidders whether Bids submitted constitute, alone or together with other Bids, Qualified Bids so as to enable such Qualified Bidders to bid at the Auction (as defined below). Any Bid that is not deemed a “Qualified Bid” shall not be considered by the Debtors.

The stalking horse bidder, if selected, shall be deemed to be a Qualified Bidder. The Stalking Horse Agreement submitted by the stalking horse bidder shall be deemed a Qualified Bid, qualifying the stalking horse bidder to participate in the Auction.

F. Bid Deadline.

Qualified Bids must be received by (i) the Debtors and (ii) their counsel and investment banker no later than the Bid Deadline of November 13, 2015 at 12:00 p.m. (prevailing Eastern Time). The Debtors, their counsel and/or their investment banker will share the Qualified Bids received with the Consultation Parties within one (1) business day following receipt thereof.

G. Evaluation of Qualified Bids.

Prior to the Auction, the Debtors shall evaluate Qualified Bids and, in consultation with their advisors and the Consultation Parties, identify the Qualified Bid that is, in the Debtors' judgment, the highest or otherwise best bid (the "Starting Bid") with respect to the relevant Quirky Assets. Within 24 hours of such determination, the Debtors shall notify the stalking horse bidder (if any) and the other Qualified Bidders as to which Qualified Bid is the Starting Bid. The Debtors shall distribute copies of the Starting Bid to each Qualified Bidder who has submitted a Qualified Bid.

H. No Qualified Bids.

If no Qualified Bids are received by the Bid Deadline, then the Auction will not occur, the Stalking Horse Agreement (if applicable) will be deemed the Successful Bid (as defined herein) and the Debtors will pursue entry of an order by the Bankruptcy Court approving the Stalking Horse Agreement and authorizing the sale of the Quirky Assets to the stalking horse bidder at the Sale Hearing. If no Stalking Horse Agreement is in place and there are no Qualified Bids by the Bid Deadline, the Debtors, in consultation with the Consultation Parties, may cancel the Auction or extend the Bid Deadline for a reasonable amount of time, rescheduling the Auction and Sale Hearing upon further leave of the Court.

I. Auction.

If one or more Qualified Bids is received by the Bid Deadline, then the Debtors shall conduct the Auction with respect to the Quirky Assets. The Auction shall commence on November 17, 2015 at 10:00 a.m. (prevailing Eastern Time) at the offices of Cooley LLP, 1114 Avenue of the Americas, New York, New York 10036, or such later time (after consultation with the Consultation Parties) or other place as the Debtors shall timely notify the Quirky Community Stalking Horse and all other Qualified Bidders.

The Auction will be conducted in accordance with the following procedures (the "Auction Procedures")

- (a) the Auction will be conducted openly;
- (b) only the Qualified Bidders, including the stalking horse bidder, shall be entitled to bid at the Auction;
- (c) the Qualified Bidders, including the stalking horse bidder, shall appear in person or through duly-authorized representatives at the Auction;
- (d) only such authorized representatives of each of the Qualified Bidders, the stalking horse bidder, the Committee, members of the Committee, Comerica, the Debtors, and each of their respective advisors shall be permitted to attend the Auction;
- (e) bidding at the Auction shall begin at the Starting Bid; subsequent Bids at the Auction, including any Bids by any stalking horse bidder, shall be made in minimum increments in an amount to be determined by the Debtors, in consultation with the Consultation Parties, to be announced at the Auction;

- (f) each Qualified Bidder will be informed of the terms of the previous Bids;
- (g) the bidding will be transcribed or videotaped to ensure an accurate recording of the bidding at the Auction;
- (h) each Qualified Bidder will be required to confirm on the record of the Auction that it has not engaged in any collusion with respect to the bidding or the Sale;
- (i) absent irregularities in the conduct of the Auction, the Bankruptcy Court will not consider Bids made after the Auction is closed; and
- (j) the Auction shall be governed by such other Auction Procedures as may be announced by the Debtors after consultation with its advisors and the Consultation Parties from time to time on the record at the Auction; provided, however, that any such other Auction Procedures shall not be inconsistent with any order of the Bankruptcy Court or with the provisions of the Stalking Horse Agreement with respect to these Quirky Bidding Procedures.

The Auction may be adjourned to a later date by the Debtors, in consultation with the Consultation Parties, by filing a notice of adjournment or making an announcement at the Auction. No further notice of any such continuance will be required to be provided to any party.

J. Acceptance of the Successful Bid.

Upon the conclusion of the Auction (if such Auction is conducted), the Debtors, in the exercise of their reasonable, good-faith business judgment, and in consultation with the Consultation Parties, shall identify the highest or otherwise best Qualified Bid(s) that in the exercise of their fiduciary duties the Debtors in good faith believe is materially more beneficial to the Debtors than any Stalking Horse Bid (or preliminary Bid if there is no Stalking Horse Bid) (the "Successful Bid"), which will be determined by considering, among other things:

- (a) the number, type and nature of any changes to the Stalking Horse Agreement (or preliminary Bid if there is no Stalking Horse Agreement) as appropriate;
- (b) the total expected consideration to be received by the Debtors;
- (c) the likelihood of the bidder's ability to close a transaction and the timing thereof; and
- (d) the expected net benefit to the estates.

The Qualified Bidder having submitted a Successful Bid will be deemed the "Successful Bidder". The Successful Bidder and the Debtors shall, as soon as commercially reasonable and practicable, complete and sign all agreements, contracts, instruments or other documents evidencing and containing the terms upon which such Successful Bid was made. For the avoidance of doubt, the Debtors may accept bids for less than all of the Quirky Assets and there may be more than one Successful Bidder.

The Debtors will present the results of the Auction to the Bankruptcy Court at the Sale Hearing (as defined below), at which certain findings will be sought from the Bankruptcy Court regarding the Auction, including, among other things, that (a) the Auction was conducted, and the Successful Bidder(s) was selected, in accordance with these Quirky Bidding Procedures, (b) the Auction was fair in substance and procedure, (c) each Successful Bid was a Qualified Bid, and (d) consummation of each Successful Bid will provide the highest or otherwise best value for the Quirky Assets and is in the best interests of the Debtors' estates.

If an Auction is held, the Debtors shall be deemed to have accepted a Qualified Bid only when (1) such Qualified Bid is declared a Successful Bid at the Auction and (2) definitive documentation has been executed in respect thereof. Such acceptance is conditioned upon approval by the Bankruptcy Court of the Successful Bid and entry of the Sale Order approving such Successful Bid.

K. Sale Hearing.

A hearing to consider approval of a Qualified Bid submitted by a Successful Bidder (or to approve the Stalking Horse Agreement if no Auction is held) (the "Sale Hearing") is presently scheduled to take place on November 24, 2015 at 10:00 a.m. (prevailing Eastern Time), or as soon thereafter as counsel may be heard, before the Honorable Martin Glenn, United States Bankruptcy Judge in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York, Courtroom 501, One Bowling Green, New York, New York 10004; provided, however, if the Committee files a notice of objection with the Court on or before November 23, 2015 at 4:00 p.m. (prevailing Eastern Time) with respect a Qualified Bid submitted by a Successful Bidder, the Sale Hearing with respect to such Successful Bid will be adjourned and rescheduled for December 7, 2015 at 9 a.m. (prevailing Eastern Time) with respect to the Quirky Assets set forth in such Qualified Bid.

The Sale Hearing may be adjourned to a later date by the Debtors, in consultation with the Consultation Parties, by filing a notice of adjournment or making an announcement at the Sale Hearing. No further notice of any such continuance will be required to be provided to any party.

L. Designation of Back-Up Bidder.

If for any reason a Successful Bidder fails to consummate the Qualified Bid within the time permitted after the entry of the sale order approving the Sale to the Successful Bidder, then the Qualified Bidder with the second highest or otherwise best Bid (the "Back-Up Bidder"), as determined by the Debtors after consultation with their advisors, and in consultation with the Consultation Parties, at the conclusion of the Auction and announced at that time to all the Qualified Bidders participating therein, will automatically be deemed to have submitted the highest or otherwise best Bid (the "Back-Up Bid").

The Debtors will be authorized, but not required, to consummate the transaction pursuant to the Back-Up Bid as soon as is commercially reasonable without further order of the Bankruptcy Court upon at least twenty-four (24) hours advance notice, which notice will be filed with the Bankruptcy Court. Upon designation of the Back-Up Bidder at the Auction, the Back-Up Bid shall remain open until the closing of the Successful Bid.

M. Break Up Fee and Expense Reimbursement.

In the event that neither the Successful Bid nor the Back-Up Bid is made by the stalking horse bidder (if any), the Debtors shall be obligated to pay to the stalking horse bidder from the proceeds of the purchase price for the Quirky Assets, upon the closing of the Successful Bid or the Back-Up Bid (as applicable) and the payment of such purchase price, by wire transfer in immediately available funds to an account designated by the stalking horse bidder, the Break Up Fee and Expense Reimbursement, in each instance in accordance with the applicable provisions of the Stalking Horse Agreement.

N. Return of Good Faith Deposit.

The Good Faith Deposit of a Successful Bidder shall, upon consummation of the Successful Bid, be credited to the purchase price paid for the Quirky Assets. If a Successful Bidder fails to consummate the Successful Bid, then the Good Faith Deposit shall be forfeited to, and retained irrevocably by, the Debtors.

The Good Faith Deposit of any unsuccessful Qualified Bidders will be returned within three (3) business days after consummation of the Sale of the Quirky Assets.

O. Reservation of Rights.

The Debtors reserve their rights to modify these Quirky Bidding Procedures, in consultation with the Consultation Parties, in any manner that will best promote the goals of the bidding process (subject to any restrictions set forth in the Stalking Horse Agreement) or impose, at or prior to the Auction, additional customary terms and conditions on the Sale of the Quirky Assets.

Notwithstanding anything herein or in the Quirky Bidding Procedures Order to the contrary, nothing will in any way impair or enhance, alter or otherwise affect any and all rights that Comerica may have to “credit bid” pursuant to section 363(k) of the Bankruptcy Code or other applicable law; provided, however, the Committee’s rights to challenge any “credit bid” by Comerica are expressly preserved.
