The United States Olympic Committee, while located in Colorado, has never been incorporated in the state of Colorado or organized under the laws of Colorado. Therefore, the current USPTO records listing the United States Olympic Committee as a Colorado organization are incorrect and should be revised to reflect the fact that the United States Olympic Committee is a congressionally chartered nonprofit corporation. We believe the USPTO records are inaccurate due to a mistake that occurred during the assignment and recordation process, when the registration was transferred from the International Olympic Committee to the United States Olympic Committee. Any such mistake was inadvertent and without prejudice to any third party. We therefore respectfully request that the USPTO records be corrected to indicate the Registrant's proper organization as a congressionally chartered nonprofit. Please let us know if you have any questions.

Section 7 Request Form

To the Commissioner for Trademarks:

The registrant requests the following amendment(s) to registration no. 3850076 PYEONGCHANG 2018 (Stylized and/or with Design, see <https://tmng-al.uspto.gov/resting2/api/img/77944477/large>) has been amended as follows:

EXPLANATION OF FILING

The United States Olympic Committee is the current owner of this registration. The United States Olympic Committee was established by an act of Congress, 36 U.S.C. Section 220501 et seq., and is considered a congressionally chartered nonprofit organization. The United States Olympic Committee, while located in Colorado, has never been incorporated in the state of Colorado or organized under the laws of Colorado. Therefore, the current USPTO records listing the United States Olympic Committee as a Colorado organization are incorrect and should be revised to reflect the fact that the United States Olympic Committee is a congressionally chartered nonprofit corporation. We believe the USPTO records are inaccurate due to a mistake that occurred during the assignment and recordation process, when the registration was transferred from the International Olympic Committee to the United States Olympic Committee. Any such mistake was inadvertent and without prejudice to any third party. We therefore respectfully request that the USPTO records be corrected to indicate the Registrant's proper organization as a congressionally chartered nonprofit. Please let us know if you have any questions.
