June 26, 2018

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN,

On February 28, 2017 Q International Courier, Inc. d/b/a Quick International Courier ("Quick") underwent a change of control and is now a wholly owned subsidiary of QIC Holdings, Inc., a holding company of The Jordan company (a US-based private equity investment company).

Immediately prior to (and as part of) the above acquisition, Quick underwent an internal re-organization and change of name in two distinct steps as follows:

(A) Quick firstly merged into a Delaware corporation of the same name (Q International Courier, Inc.). Please refer to the Certificate of Merger at Schedule 1 to this Letter which evidences the same company name of both New York and Delaware corporations that merged into the Delaware entity; and

(B) Q International Courier, Inc. (the Delaware corporation resulting from the merger in step A above) then secondly converted into a Delaware limited liability company (LLC) of the same name (Q International Courier, LLC). Please refer to the Certificate of Conversion at Schedule 2 to this Letter that evidences the conversion of the entity from a Delaware Inc. to LLC of the same name.

Q International Courier LLC is the surviving entity of the merger and conversion steps detailed above and continues to hold all of the assets, liabilities and obligations of Q International Courier, Inc. i.e. it is the survivor entity but now a Delaware LLC

Also attached at Schedule 3 to this Letter is a current W- 9 for reference. Quick's EIN (23-2160093) did not change as a result of the above internal re-organization. Q International Courier LLC continues to d/b/a as Quick International Courier and no change to our scope of business or services, management or staffing resulted from the ultimate change of control or the merger and conversion steps detailed above.

Yours sincerely,

James Bailey
Senior VP, Corporate Administrative & Legal Affairs
Q International Courier, LLC
and the Quick group of companies

7 List account number(s) here (optional)

Requester's name and address (optional)

Part I Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. The TIN provided must match the name given on line 1 to avoid backup withholding. For individuals, this is generally your social security number (SSN). However, for a resident alien, sole proprietor, or disregarded entity, see the Part I instructions on page 3. For other entities, it is your employer identification number (EIN). If you do not have a number, see How to get a TIN on page 3.

Note. If the account is in more than one name, see the instructions for line 1 and the chart on page 4 for guidelines on whose number to enter.

Part II Certification

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

- The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me); and
- I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding; and
- I am a U.S. citizen or other U.S. person (defined below); and
- The FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that I am exempt from FATCA reporting is correct.

Certification instructions. You must cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return. For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the certification, but you must provide your correct TIN. See the instructions on page 3.

General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.

Future developments. Information about developments affecting Form W-9 (such as legislation enacted after we release it) is at www.irs.gov/w9.

Purpose of Form

An individual or entity (Form W-9 requester) who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) which may be your social security number (SSN), individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN), adoption taxpayer identification number (ATIN), or employer identification number (EIN), to report on an information return the amount paid to you, or other amount reportable on an information return. Examples of information returns include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Form 1099-INT (interest earned or paid)
- Form 1099-DIV (dividends, including those from stocks or mutual funds)
- Form 1099-MISC (various types of income, prizes, awards, or gross proceeds)
- Form 1099-B (stock or mutual fund sales and certain other transactions by brokers)
- Form 1099-S (proceeds from real estate transactions)
- Form 1099-K (merchant card and third party network transactions)

- Form 1098 (home mortgage interest), 1098-E (student loan interest), 1098-T (tuition)
- Form 1099-C (canceled debt)
- Form 1099-A (acquisition or abandonment of secured property)

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN.

If you do not return Form W-9 to the requester with a TIN, you might be subject to backup withholding. See What is backup withholding? on page 2.

By signing the filled-out form, you:

- Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued);
- Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or
- Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee. If applicable, you are also certifying that as a U.S. person, your allocable share of any partnership income from a U.S. trade or business is not subject to the withholding tax on foreign partners' shares of effectively connected income, and
- Certify that FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that you are exempt from the FATCA reporting, is correct. See What is FATCA reporting? on page 2 for further information.
