a. In order to induce Lender to enter into this Note and to make the financial accommodations described in this Note and to secure the performance of its Secured Obligations (as defined below), Borrower hereby unconditionally grants, collaterally assigns and pledges to Lender a first priority continuing security interest in, and a right to set off against, any and all right, title and interest of Borrower in and to all of the following, whether now owned or existing or owned, acquired or arising after the date of this Note (each as defined in the Uniform Commercial Code from time to time in effect in the State of New York the "UCC") (collectively, the "Collateral"): any and all "Accounts", "Chattel paper", "Commercial tort claims", contracts to which Borrower is a party (including, without limitation, Borrower's rights thereunder), "Deposit accounts", "Documents", "General intangibles", "Goods" (including, without limitation, any and all "Inventory", any and all "Equipment" and any and all "Fixtures"), "Instruments", "Investment property", "Letter-of-credit rights" and "Supporting obligations", any and all other personal property and interests whether or not subject to the UCC, any and all books and records, in whatever form or medium, all "Accessions" and additions to, and substitutions and replacements of, any and all of the foregoing, and all "Proceeds" and products of the foregoing, and all insurance pertaining to the foregoing and proceeds thereof. With respect to commercial tort claims, Debtor has attached to this Security Agreement a description of all commercial tort claims in which it has rights on the date of this Agreement. Debtor covenants that it will promptly, and in any event no less than thirty (30) days after obtaining rights in a commercial tort claim after the date hereof, notify Lender of the existence of that commercial tort claim, including a description thereof, and execute an amendment to this Agreement granting Lender a security interest in such commercial tort claim.
