In order to induce Lender to enter into this Note and to make the financial accommodations described in this Note and to secure the performance of its Secured Obligations (as defined below), Borrower hereby unconditionally grants, collaterally assigns and pledges to Lender a first priority continuing security interest in, and a right to set off against, any and all right, title and interest of Borrower in and to all of the following, whether now owned or existing or owned, acquired or arising after the date of this Note (each as defined in the Uniform Commercial Code from time to time in effect in the State of New York (the "UCC")) (collectively, the "Collateral"): any and all "Accounts"; "Chattel paper"; "Commercial tort claims"; contracts to which Borrower is a party (including, without limitation, Borrower's rights thereunder); "Deposit accounts"; "Documents"; "General intangibles" (including, without limitation, Intellectual Property Collateral (as defined below)); "Goods" (including, without limitation, any and all "Inventory," any and all "Equipment" and any and all "Fixtures"); "Instruments"; "Investment property"; "Letter-of-credit rights" and "Supporting obligations"; any and all other personal property and interests whether or not subject to the UCC; any and all books and records, in whatever form or medium; all "Accessions" and additions to, and substitutions and replacements of, any and all of the foregoing; all "Proceeds" and products of the foregoing; and all insurance pertaining to the foregoing and proceeds thereof. With respect to commercial tort claims, Borrower has attached to this Note a description of all commercial tort claims in which it has rights on the date of this Note (the "Claims Schedule"). Borrower covenants that it will promptly, and in any event no less than thirty (30) days after obtaining rights in a commercial tort claim after the date hereof, notify Lender of the existence of that commercial tort claim, including a description thereof, and execute an amendment to this Note granting Lender a security interest in such commercial tort claim. Borrower covenants that it will promptly, and in any event no less than ten (10) after obtaining rights in any property subject to the IP Schedule, provide Lender with an updated IP Schedule.

b. "Intellectual Property Collateral" means all intellectual property and all rights therein of any type or description, including, without limitation, all inventions and discoveries; patents and patent applications; copyrights and applications for copyright (together with the underlying works of authorship), whether or not registered, together with any renewals and extensions thereof; trademarks, service marks and trade names, and applications for registration of such trademarks, service marks and trade names; domain names; trade secrets; trade dress; trade styles; logos; other source of business identifiers; mask-works; mask-work registrations; mask-work applications; software; confidential and proprietary information; customer lists; other license rights; advertising materials; operating manuals; methods; processes; know-how; algorithms; formulae; databases; quality control procedures; product, service and technical specifications; operating, production and quality control manuals; sales literature; drawings; specifications; blue prints; descriptions; inventions; name plates and catalogs; the entire goodwill of or associated with the businesses now or hereafter conducted by Borrower connected with and symbolized by any of the aforementioned properties and assets; all licenses relating to any of the foregoing; all reissuance, continuations and continuations-in-part of the foregoing; all other rights derived from or associated with the foregoing, including the right to sue and recover for past infringement; and all income and royalties with respect to the foregoing.

c. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Note, Collateral does not include (i) a trademark application filed on the basis of Borrower's intent to use before evidence of use of the trademark has been filed with and accepted, but only for so long as grant of a security interest would adversely affect such application or resulting registration, and (ii) Borrower's rights under license of intellectual property that is subject to a restrictive provision that is effective against Borrower despite sections 9-406 through 9-409 of the UCC or other applicable law, but only for so long as the restrictive provision is effective and enforceable.
