to be its attorney with power to act alone on behalf and in the name of the Company with respect to any registered or unregistered trade mark, design, patent, copyright or any other expression of industrial or intellectual property rights including domain names (collectively the "IP Rights") at a worldwide level for the following purposes:

- (A) to take any action in respect of the IP Rights appropriate for the achievement or conduct of:
- (i) filing, prosecution or maintenance (including renewal) of any registration or of any application to register;
 - (ii) recording of changes in title and transfers of rights of the Company;
 - (iii) oppositions, observations, applications for revocation, cancellation or invalidation and objections of any kind against third-party applications, rights, or registrations;
 - (iv) filing petitions, declarations and documents that may be required in each case, including replies to official actions or to any objections or oppositions that may be raised ex officio or by third parties against any application so filed;
 - (v) administrative appeals, appeals for review and any other kind of appeal against decisions issued by administrative or judicial authorities;
 - (vi) any and all actions necessary to maintain in force any applications filed, or registrations granted, including payment of annuities, taxes, and any other legally established fees;

- (vii) withdrawal of any of the above filings or actions that may have been instituted and waiver of any applications, registrations or rights;
 - (viii) and all other actions that may be required in the interest of the Company in relation to any of its IP rights applications or registrations.
- (B) with respect to any dispute regarding any of the Company's IP Rights including, but not limited to, civil, criminal, commercial, administrative, tax and any other area of the law:
- (i) to represent the Company in and out of any Court, Office, Administration, Authority or
 - (ii) Arbitrator including, but not limited to, all ancillary and consequently all proceedings (e.g. arrest proceedings, seizures, interim injunctions, inspection of premises and documents, taxation of costs, execution, insolvency and bankruptcy) in all instances and degrees of appeal and with the authority to file and withdraw counterclaims;
 - (iii) to effect and receive services of process and of any document;
- (C) to approve, sign, execute and deliver under hand or under seal as may be required, or witness the sealing of, any deed, agreement, undertaking or other document as may at the discretion of the Attorney be necessary or desirable for or in connection with the purposes referred to in items (A) and (B);
- (D) to approve, sign, execute and deliver under hand or under seal as may be required, or witness the sealing of, any powers of attorney authorizing others to act in their capacity with respect to the matters listed at items (A) and (B);
- (E) to attend to all ancillary matters and to do all other acts and things on behalf of the Company as may at the discretion of the Attorney be necessary or desirable for or in connection with the purposes referred to in items (A) and (B).

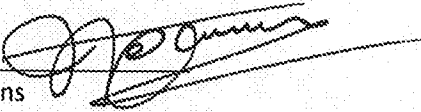

2. Intention and Ratification

Without prejudice to the authority conferred by this Deed on the Attorney to act on behalf of the Company, the Company intends that any document signed on its behalf by the Attorney pursuant to this Deed shall bind the Company and shall have the same effect as if it had been executed by the Company and in addition the Company ratifies and agrees to ratify everything that the Attorney does on behalf of the Company in the exercise of or pursuant to the authority conferred by this Deed.
