Article 3. As used herein, the term “organizational documents” refers an entity’s articles of incorporation, articles of organization, statements of qualification, certificates of limited partnership, and similar documents that create and govern the entity and must be filed as public records under applicable law.

Select the applicable statement:

- The surviving entity preexists the merger, and it will be amending its organizational documents once the merger becomes effective. If this box is checked, attach a copy of the amendments to the surviving entity’s organizational documents that will take effect with the merger.
- The surviving entity preexists the merger, and it will not be amending its organizational documents immediately after the merger becomes effective.
- The surviving entity is being created in the merger. If this box is checked, attach a copy of the organizational documents that will be filed to create the surviving entity.

Article 4. The Plan of Merger was approved and adopted by each party to the merger in accordance with its governing law. The Plan of Merger is on file at the principal office of the surviving entity. Upon request, a copy of the Plan of Merger will be provided to any interest holder of any merging entity or surviving entity.

Article 5. Special provisions (select only if applicable):

This is a merger of a parent corporation and its indirect wholly owned subsidiary pursuant to section 180.11045 of the Wisconsin Statutes. It was approved in accordance with that section, and the requirements of section 180.11045(2), Wis. Stats., have been satisfied.

This merger includes a general partnership, limited partnership, limited liability partnership, or a limited liability limited partnership organized under Wisconsin law, and at least one partner of the partnership did not vote for or consent to the transaction. If this box is checked, refer to sections 178.1161 or 179.1161 of the Wisconsin Statutes, as applicable, and select one of the two statements below:

The transaction will materially increase the current or potential obligations of the non-consenting partner with respect to any entity in the merger or treat the non-consenting partner’s interests in a manner different from interests of the same class held by any other partner.

The transaction will not materially increase the current or potential obligations of the non-consenting partner with respect to any entity in the merger, nor treat the non-consenting partner’s interests in a manner different from interests of the same class held by any other partner.

(Optional) The merging parties may—but are not required to—include additional provisions relating to the merger in this document. Attach any optional provisions on additional pages as needed.

EXECUTION: These articles of merger must be signed by each of the merging entities identified in Article 1 above. Attach additional signature pages if necessary.

Article 1. Identify the entities that are merging in the transaction. Provide the name, entity type, and governing law (either a U.S. state or a foreign country) of each entity as it exists immediately prior to the transaction.

Article 2. Identify the entity that will survive and continue its existence after (or be created by) the merger. Provide the name, entity type, and governing law (either a U.S. state or a foreign country) of the surviving entity.

Article 3. Select one of the three statements, whichever is applicable. If the surviving entity preexists the merger and its organizational documents will be amended after the merger becomes effective, check the first box and attach a copy of the amendments to the surviving entity's organizational documents. If the surviving entity preexists the merger but will not be amending its organizational documents immediately after the merger becomes effective, check the second box. If the surviving entity will be created in the merger, check the third box and attach a copy of the organizational documents that will be filed to create the surviving entity.

Article 4. Wisconsin law requires the parties to the merger to affirm that the plan of merger was approved and adopted in accordance with each party's governing law, that the plan is on file at the principal office of the surviving entity, and that the plan will be provided upon request to any interest holder of any merging entity or surviving entity.

Note: the parties to the merger are not required to file the plan of merger with the Department.
