EXHIBIT A
DEFINITION OF COLLATERAL

"Collateral" means all of the following properties, assets and rights of the Company, wherever located, whether now owned or hereafter acquired or arising, and all proceeds and products thereof:

All personal property of every kind and nature including, without limitation, all furniture, equipment, raw materials, inventory, goods, accounts, contract rights, rights to the payment of money, insurance refund claims and all other insurance claims and proceeds, tort claims, chattel paper, electronic chattel paper, documents, instruments, securities and other investment property, deposit accounts, rights to proceeds of letters of credit, letter-of-credit rights, supporting obligations of every nature, payment intangibles, and general intangibles including, without limitation, all tax refund claims, license fees, patents (including without limitation those listed below, if any), patent applications (including without limitation those listed below, if any), trademarks, trademark applications, trade names, copyrights, copyright applications, rights to sue and recover for past infringement of patents, trademarks and copyrights, computer programs, computer software, engineering drawings, service marks, customer lists, goodwill, and all licenses, permits, agreements of any kind or nature pursuant to which (i) the Company operates or has authority to operate, (ii) the Company possesses, uses or has authority to possess or use property (whether tangible or intangible) or others, or (iii) others possess, use, or have authority to possess or use property (whether tangible or intangible) of the Company, and all recorded data of any kind or nature, regardless of the medium of recording, including, without limitation, all software, writings, plans, specifications and schematics.

The security interest granted herein does not extend to and the term "Collateral" does not include any license or contract rights to the extent (i) the granting of a security interest in it would be contrary to applicable law or the instrument evidencing such rights, or (ii) that such rights are nonassignable by their terms (but only to the extent the prohibition is enforceable under applicable law) without the consent of the licensor or other party (but only to the extent such consent has not been obtained).
