Re: U.S. Service Mark Registration No. 1,304,290 of Softmart, Inc. for "SOFTMART"

Sir:

I am attorney of record for the registrant on the above-captioned. I write this letter to serve as a substitute for certain chain-of-title documentation, affecting this registration.

Through a series of written transfers, all duly executed as of March 31, 1999, a Delaware corporation named Marksoft, Inc. became the current owner of this mark. Specifically, the sequence of transfers went as follows. Marksoft took title to the mark from a Delaware corporation named Jakelco, Inc. Jakelco acquired legal title to the mark from EIEIO, Inc., and EIEIO, in turn, acquired legal title to the mark from Softmart, Inc., which was the owner of record of this mark at the time the mark's last maintenance took place.

I make the statements contained in this letter both under my oath as an attorney at law and being warned that willful false statements and the like are punishable by fine or imprisonment, or both, under 18 U.S.C. 1001, and that such willful false statements and the like may jeopardize the validity of the recordation resulting therefrom. Moreover, I declare that all statements made herein of my own knowledge are true and all statements made on information and belief are believed to be true.

Because the registrant wishes this letter to be recorded in the Assignment Division of the Patent and Trademark Office in lieu of the transfer documents, per se, mentioned above, this letter is accompanied by a recordation cover sheet and the other information necessary to accomplish this recordation.

Respectfully,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'Joseph J. Serritella', written in a cursive style with a long horizontal flourish extending to the right.
