No action or proceeding, whether civil or criminal, then pending by or against HL, or any shareholder, officer or director thereof, shall abate or be discontinued by such merger, but may be enforced, prosecuted, settled or compromised as if such merger had not occurred, or the Surviving Corporation may be substituted in such action or special proceeding in place of HL, as the case may be.

3.7 The Surviving Corporation agrees that it may be sued in the State of Connecticut for any prior obligation of HL and for any obligation thereafter incurred by the Surviving Corporation, so long as the obligation remains outstanding against HL in such state and the Surviving Corporation shall irrevocably appoint the Secretary of State of Connecticut as its agent to accept service of process in any action for the enforcement of such obligation.

ARTICLE 4. Consummation of Merger.

The Surviving Corporation and HL shall take, or cause to be taken, all action or do or cause to be done, all things necessary, proper or advisable under the laws of the State of Delaware and the State of Connecticut or either of such states to consummate and make effective the merger.

ARTICLE 5. Abandonment of Merger.

Anything herein to the contrary notwithstanding, this Plan of Merger may be abandoned by action of the Board of Directors of the Surviving Corporation at any time prior to the Effective Time of the merger.

3.5 All the property, real and personal, including subscriptions to shares, causes of action and every other asset of Hoffmeister shall vest in the Surviving Corporation without further act or deed.

3.6 The Surviving Corporation assumes and is liable for all the liabilities, obligations and penalties of Hoffmeister, including any taxes due to the State of Connecticut. No liability or obligation due or to become due, claim or demand for any cause existing against Hoffmeister, or any shareholder, officer or director thereof, shall be released or impaired by such merger. No action or proceeding, whether civil or criminal, then pending by or against Hoffmeister, or any shareholder, officer or director thereof, shall abate or be discontinued by such merger, but may be enforced, prosecuted, settled or compromised as if such merger had not occurred, or the Surviving Corporation may be substituted in such action or special proceeding in place of Hoffmeister, as the case may be.

3.7 The Surviving Corporation agrees that it may be sued in the State of Connecticut for any prior obligation of Hoffmeister and for any obligation thereafter incurred by the Surviving Corporation, so long as the obligation remains outstanding against Hoffmeister in such state and the Surviving Corporation shall irrevocably appoint the Secretary of State of Connecticut as its agent to accept service of process in any action for the enforcement of such obligation.

ARTICLE 4. Consummation of Merger.

The Surviving Corporation and Hoffmeister shall take, or cause to be taken, all action or do or cause to be done, all things necessary, proper or advisable under the laws of the State of Delaware and the State of Connecticut or either of such states to consummate and make effective the merger.

ARTICLE 5. Abandonment of Merger.

Anything herein to the contrary notwithstanding, this Plan of Merger may be abandoned by action of the Board of Directors of the Surviving Corporation at any time prior to the Effective Time of the merger.
