13.3 Liquidated Damages. In the event that payment is required to be made pursuant to Sections 13.1 or 13.2, the payment of any such amount is the sole remedy to which DietSmart or eDiets, as the case may be, shall be entitled to, and the party making the payment shall have no liability or obligations of any nature whatsoever to the other party arising out of this Agreement. Payment of the amounts required pursuant to Sections 13.1 and 13.2 is an integral part of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and are an inducement to each of the parties to enter into this Agreement and, to the extent payable constitute liquidated damages and not a penalty.

14. Repayment of Certain Advance. As reflected in a promissory note dated

TRADEMARK

July 11, 2001 made by DietSmart to eDiets, eDiets advanced the sum of $50,000 to DietSmart. The parties hereby agree that the Promissory Note shall be amended so that the "Due Date" shall be the date this Agreement terminates for any reason.

15. Fees and Expenses. eDiets and Newco for themselves, and DietSmart for itself and for the Principal Stockholders, shall bear its and his or her own expenses in connection with this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby, except that:

(a) in the event this Agreement terminates for any reason, DietSmart will reimburse eDiets for the Ernst & Young LLP audit fees incurred in accordance with the Letter Agreement between eDiets and DietSmart dated July 26, 2001, the terms of which shall survive the execution of this Agreement; and

(b) in the event the legal fees and cost of the counsel for DietSmart in the transaction exceed $100,000, exclusive of counsel fees for the preparation of the Proxy Statement which accrue from September 25, 2001 until the Closing, then the excess over $100,000 shall be deducted from the Initial Cash Payment at Closing.

(c) In the event this Agreement terminates for any reason, DietSmart shall pay eDiets $7,500 within 10 days after the date of termination as reimbursement of a portion of the fees of Instream Partners LLC incurred by eDiets in connection with the Merger.

17.2. Severability. If any term or other provision of this Agreement is invalid, illegal or incapable of being enforced by any rule of law, or public policy, all other conditions and provisions of this Agreement shall nevertheless remain in full force and effect so long as the economic or legal substance of the transactions contemplated hereby is not affected in any manner adverse to any party. Upon such determination that any term or other provision is invalid, illegal or incapable of being enforced, the parties hereto shall negotiate in good faith to modify this Agreement so as to effect the original intent of -the parties as closely as possible in an acceptable manner to the end that transactions contemplated hereby are fulfilled to the greatest extent possible.

17.3. Entire Agreement. This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement, and supersede all prior agreements and undertakings, both written and oral, among the parties, or any of them, with respect to the subject matter hereof.

17.4. Amendment. This Agreement may not be amended except by an instrument in writing signed by each of the parties hereto.

17.5. Schedules. All references in this Agreement to Schedules shall mean the schedules identified in this Agreement, which are incorporated into this Agreement and shall be deemed a part of the representations and warranties to which they relate. To the extent a disclosure has been made by eDiets, Newco, DietSmart or the Principal Stockholders on any Schedule, it shall be in writing, shall indicate the section pursuant to which it is being delivered, and shall be initialed by the delivering party. For purposes of this Agreement, information which is necessary to make a given Schedule complete and accurate, but is omitted therefrom, shall nevertheless be deemed to be contained therein if it is contained on any other Schedule; but only if such information appears on such other Schedule in such form and detail that it is responsive to the requirements of such given Schedule.

17.6. No Assignment. This Agreement shall not be assigned except for by operation of law or mutual consent of the parties hereto, and any assignment shall be null and void.

17.7. Governing Law, Venue. This Agreement shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the law of the State of Delaware without regard to its choice of law principles. The party or parties seeking to enforce the provisions of this Agreement will choose the venue of such action, and the non-enforcing party agrees to submit to and waives any objections to jurisdiction or venue in that proceeding.

17.8 Dispute Resolution.

(a) Any dispute, controversy or claim arising out of or relating to this Agreement or any related agreement, or the transaction contemplated by this Agreement or the validity, interpretation, breach or termination thereof (a "Dispute"), including claims seeking redress or asserting rights under Delaware law, shall be resolved in accordance with the procedures set forth herein. Until completion of such procedures, no party may take any action not contemplated herein to force a resolution of the Dispute by any judicial, arbitral or similar process, except to the limited extent necessary to (i) avoid expiration of a claim that might eventually be permitted hereby or (ii) obtain interim relief, including injunctive relief, to preserve the status quo or prevent irreparable harm.

(b) All communications between the parties or their representatives in connection with the attempted resolution of any Dispute shall be deemed to have been delivered in furtherance of a Dispute settlement and shall be exempt from discovery and production, and shall not be admissible in evidence (whether as an admission or otherwise), in any arbitral or other proceeding for the resolution of the Dispute.

(c) In connection with any Dispute, the parties expressly waive and forego any right to punitive, exemplary, statutorily-enhanced or similar damages in excess of compensatory damages.

(d) As a condition precedent to the institution of arbitration, written notice, served in accordance with Section 17.1, shall be served by the party ("Disputing Party") seeking to enforce the terms of this Agreement or the transaction contemplated herein. The notice shall be in the form of a written statement of the dispute, the resolution sought and the basis upon which such resolution is predicated. Within thirty (30) days after the notice is complete and if the dispute has not been resolved by the parties or any representative appointed by a party, any party has the right to submit the dispute to binding arbitration.

(e) Either party may submit the Dispute for resolution by arbitration pursuant to the Rules of the American Arbitration Association ("AAA") for commercial disputes as in effect at the time of the arbitration, except as modified herein. The parties consent to a single, consolidated arbitration for all Disputes for which arbitration is permitted.

(f) The arbitral tribunal shall be composed of one arbitrator selected by agreement of the parties or, in the absence of such agreement within 60 days after either party first proposes an arbitrator, by the AAA.

Each party shall be permitted to present its case, witnesses and evidence, if any, in the presence of the other party. The parties shall have the right to conduct discovery in accordance with the discovery rules of the state in which the arbitration is conducted. A written transcript of the proceedings shall be made and furnished to the parties. The arbitrator shall determine the Dispute in accordance with the choice of law provisions of Section 17.7, without giving effect to any conflict of law rules or other rules that might render such law inapplicable or unavailable, and shall apply this Agreement according to its terms, provided that the provisions relating to arbitration shall be governed by the Federal Arbitration Act, 9 U.S.C. (S)(S)1 et seq. The Arbitrator shall enter an award which includes detailed findings of fact and conclusions of law.

(g) The parties agree to be bound by any award or order resulting from any arbitration conducted hereunder and further agree that:

(i) any monetary award shall include pre-award interest, to the extent appropriate, and shall be made and payable in U.S. dollars through a bank selected by the recipient of such award, free of any withholding tax or other deduction, together with interest thereon at the prime rate in effect at such bank on the date of the award, from the date the award is granted to the date it is paid in full;

(ii) in the context of an attempt by either party to enforce an arbitral award or order, any defenses relating to the parties' capacity or the validity of this Agreement or any related agreement under any law are hereby waived; and

(iii) judgment on any award or order resulting from an arbitration conducted under this Section may be entered and enforced in any court having jurisdiction thereof or having jurisdiction over any of the parties or any of their assets.

(iv) The parties shall have the right to appeal the Arbitrator's final decision and award to any court having jurisdiction over the matter, and such appeal rights shall include reversal for an application of law which is erroneous or a finding of fact which is clearly erroneous.

(h) Except as expressly permitted by this Agreement, no party will commence or voluntarily participate in any court action or proceeding concerning a Dispute, except (i) for enforcement as contemplated by paragraph (f) (iii) above, (ii) to restrict or vacate an arbitral decision based on the grounds specified under applicable law and not waived in paragraph (f)(ii) above, or (iii) for interim relief as provided in paragraph (h) below. For purposes of the foregoing or enforcement of any undisputed obligation, the parties hereto submit to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of Florida and New York.

(i) In addition to the authority otherwise conferred on the arbitral tribunal, the tribunal shall have the authority to make such orders for interim relief, including injunctive relief, as it may deem just and equitable. Notwithstanding paragraph (g) above, each party acknowledges that in the event of any actual or threatened breach of the provisions of Sections 4, 5, 7, 6, 7, 9 or 10, the remedy at law would not be adequate, and therefore injunctive or other interim relief may be sought immediately to restrain such breach. If the tribunal shall not have been appointed, either party may seek interim relief from a court having jurisdiction if the award to which the applicant may be entitled may be rendered ineffectual without such interim relief. Upon appointment of the tribunal following any grant of interim relief by a court, the tribunal may affirm or disaffirm such relief, and the parties will seek modification or rescission of the court action as necessary to accord with the tribunal's decision.

(j) The prevailing party in any arbitration conducted under this Section shall be entitled to recover (as part of the arbitral award or order) its reasonable attorneys' fees and other costs of arbitration or litigation.

17.9. Headings. Headings in this Agreement are included herein for convenience of reference only and shall not constitute part of this Agreement for any other purpose.

17.10 Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts, and by the different parties hereto in separate counterparts, each of which when so executed shall be deemed to be an original, but all of which taken together shall constitute one and the same agreement.

17.11 Attorneys' Fees. If any legal action or other proceeding is brought for the enforcement of this Agreement or the transaction contemplated herein, or because of any alleged dispute, breach, default or misrepresentation in connection with any provision of his Agreement, the successful or prevailing party or parties shall be entitled to recover reasonable attorneys' fees, court costs and reasonable expenses incurred in that action or proceeding, in addition to any other relief to which such party or parties may be entitled.

17.12 Construction. This Agreement will not be construed more strongly against either party regardless of which party is responsible for its preparation.

17.13 Waiver of Breach. The waiver by either party of a breach of any provision of this Agreement by the other party must be in writing and shall not operate or be construed as a waiver of any subsequent breach by such other party.
