ARTICLES OF AMENDMENT
(Vermont profit corporation T.11A, §10.06)

Vermont Secretary of State, 81 River Street, Montpelier, VT 05609-1104 (802-828-2386)

A Vermont domestic for-profit corporation may amend its articles of incorporation at any time to add or change a provision that is required or permitted in the articles of incorporation or to delete a provision not required. If a corporation has not yet issued shares, its incorporator or board of directors may adopt one or more amendments.

Current NAME of corporation:

The CataMule Group, Inc.

The text and date of each amendment adopted:

The Articles of Incorporation shall be amended so that the corporate name is changed to

"American Meadows Inc."

Does this amendment provide for an exchange, reclassification, or cancellation of issued shares? If so, state those provisions here:

If the amendment was adopted by the incorporators or board of directors, without shareholder action, make a statement to that effect and that shareholder action was not required.

If the amendment was approved by shareholders. (A) the designation, number of outstanding shares, number of votes entitled to be cast by each voting group entitled to vote separately on the amendment, and number of votes of each voting group represented at the meeting.

846,154 shares of common stock were outstanding and entitled to vote on the amendment at the meeting.

846,154 shares of common stock were represented at the meeting.

(B) either the total number of votes cast for and against the amendment by each voting group entitled to vote separately on the amendment or the total number of undisputed votes cast for the amendment by each voting group and a statement that the number cast for the amendment by each voting group was sufficient for approval by that voting group.

846,154 shares of the outstanding common stock voted for the amendment. Zero shares voted against the amendment. The number of votes cast for the amendment was sufficient for approval.
