ARTICLE VIII LIMITATION OF LIABILITY & INDEMNIFICATION

No director shall be personally liable for monetary damages to the corporation or any other person for any statement, vote, decision, or failure to act, regarding corporate management or policy, by a director, except as otherwise provided by the Florida Business Corporation Act.

To the extent the law permits, the Corporation shall indemnify each of its officers, directors, and employees, whether or not then in office, and his or her heirs and legal representatives, against all expenses, judgments, decrees, fines, penalties, or other amounts actually and reasonably incurred, in settlement of, or in connection with the defense of any pending or threatened action, suit, or proceeding, civil or criminal, to which he or she is or may be made a party by reason of having been a director, officer, or employee of the Corporation. Without limitation, the term "expenses" shall include all counsel fees, expert witness fees, court costs and any other costs of a similar nature. The Corporation shall not, however, indemnify any officer, director, or employee until the Board of Directors consisting of Directors who were not parties to such action, has determined, by majority vote at a meeting or by a written instrument signed by a majority of the directors who were not parties to such action, that the officer, director, or employee: (a) Was not grossly negligent in his or her duty to the Corporation, nor guilty of intentional misconduct in the performance of duties to the Corporation; (b) Acted in good faith in what he or she reasonably believed to be in the best interests of the Corporation; and (c) In any matter subject to criminal action, suit or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe that the conduct was unlawful.
