DECLARATION OF ROBERT BAHRAMPOUR UNDER T.M.E.P. § 503.06

1. I am Associate General Counsel & SVP for Bank of America Corporation (“Bank of America”). I submit this declaration in support of Bank of America’s request under T.M.E.P. § 503.06(c) to correct an assignment improperly recorded against Bank of America’s Reg. Nos. 5837719, 4555907, 4059299 and 3301368 (hereinafter, the “Registrations”). As set forth below in greater detail, Bank of America is the true owner of the Registrations and of the marks covered thereby and Bank of America therefore should be identified as the record owner of the Registrations and the marks in the USPTO’s records.

2. The information set forth in this declaration is based on my personal knowledge and on records maintained in the ordinary course of business by employees under my supervision.

3. On or about December 16, 2020, correspondents Anthony G. Corpe and Valerie D. Corpe, with an address at 30651 McCormick Road, Sedalia, Missouri 65301, submitted an electronic request to the USPTO seeking to record a conveyance identified as a Nunc Pro Tunc Assignment against eight properties, including the Registrations, identifying themselves and several others as receiving parties. The purported conveyance was recorded at Reel 7136, Frame 0762. A copy of this filing is attached as Exhibit A.

4. Bank of America had not and has not transferred title in the Registrations to any or all of the receiving parties identified in the document recorded at Reel 7136, Frame 0762.

5. The document recorded at Reel 7136, Frame 0762 is incoherent, fraudulent and legally deficient on its face for myriad reasons, including (without limitation) the absence of signature of Bank of America as the assigning party. As such, it was improper to record the document.

5. Bank of America has made diligent good faith efforts to request that Anthony G. Corpe and Valerie Corpe take steps to remove this fraudulent and legally deficient filing. Unfortunately, those efforts have failed. By letter dated June 22, 2021, attorneys for Bank of America contacted Anthony and Valerie Corpe regarding the fraudulent filing. A copy of this letter with proof delivery are attached as Exhibit B. A follow-up email communication from our attorneys was sent to Anthony and Valerie Corpe on July 1, 2021 and on the same date Anthony Corpe responded and advised that "a corrective assignment was filed on Monday to remove the Nunc Pro Tunc Assignment" and that "[a] letter along with a copy of the cover sheet for the corrective assignment will be priority mailed to your attention tomorrow, Friday July 2nd." See Exhibit C for exchange of emails between our attorneys and Mr. Corpe.

7. On July 12, 2021, Anthony and Valerie Corpe send our attorneys a cover page of an alleged corrective assignment that they claimed had been filed with the Assignment

Division of the United States Patent and Trademark Office ("USPTO"). A copy of that cover page is attached hereto as Exhibit D. Although the document referenced 26 attachments, none were ever provided to our attorneys by Anthony or Valerie Corpe.

8. Given the possible backlog of matters created by the Covid-19 situation, we have waited since July 12, 2021 to see what if anything has been filed by Anthony and Valerie Corpe to remove this fraudulent and legally deficient filing. To date, nothing appears in the USPTO assignment records, and it is our belief that Anthony and Valerie Corpe have not only failed to file a corrective assignment to remove this fraudulent filing but continue to refuse to do so or to take steps to remove this clearly fraudulent and legally deficient filing as against the above listed Registrations of Bank of America.

9. Based on the foregoing, we respectfully request that the USPTO Assignment Division remove and correct this fraudulent assignment at Reel 7136, Frame 0762 that has been improperly recorded against the Bank of America Registrations.

The undersigned, being hereby warned that willful false statements and the like so made are punishable by fine or imprisonment, or both, under 18 U.S.C. § 1001, declares that the facts set forth in this declaration are true; all statements made of her own knowledge are true; and that all statements made on information and belief are believed to be true.

Bank of America had not and has not assigned these trademark registrations to those identified as receiving parties, and the document recorded as evidence of the alleged Nunc Pro Tunc Assignment, which is fraudulent and suffers from myriad legal defects, does not actually transfer title in those registrations.

In view of the foregoing, we demand that within the next three (3) business days you: (i) contact the USPTO and take bona fide steps to have this fraudulent filing immediately removed from the USPTO records, and (ii) confirm to us in a sworn writing with evidence that you have contacted the USPTO and have taken all necessary steps to remove this fraudulent filing/document from the USPTO records.

Tony,

Thank you for your response. As you might imagine, the fraudulent recordal of a change of title against my client's intellectual property is a grave concern for us, and correcting the official records is a high priority. We're glad to hear that you're taking steps to address this issue.

I understand from your comments below that you're planning to send me a copy of your submission from Monday via priority mail. Please be sure to send me: (1) a complete copy of your corrective submission, and (2) a copy of the official confirmation receipt for that submission. I'd prefer that you send electronic copies (PDF or similar format electronic file would be perfect) via email, instead of soft copies via priority mail. However, if you've already sent the soft copies via priority mail, please do send electronic copies as well.

Sincerely,
Jill Tomlinson

In response to your letter and email, steps have been taken to address your concerns. Nothing happens instantly, a corrective assignment was filed on Monday to remove the Nunc Pro Tunc Assignment. It has not been recorded yet, and may not for up to 2 weeks. A letter along with a copy of the cover sheet for the corrective assignment will be priority mailed to your attention tomorrow, Friday July 2nd. I have addressed everything as requested, you have no patience.

WITHOUT PREJUDICE

Dear Anthony G. Corpe and Valerie D. Corpe:

This is in reference to my letter dated June 22, 2021, delivered to you by both FedEx and certified mail, concerning your fraudulent recordal with the United States Patent and Trademark Office of a document purporting to be a nunc pro tunc assignment of rights in several U.S. federal trademark registrations, including four (4) registrations that are owned by my client, Bank of America. A copy of that letter, along with its enclosure, is attached for your easy reference.

You did not respond substantively to or even acknowledge my letter within the stated response time period. While my client and I had hoped that this matter could be resolved promptly and amicably, we will have no choice but to take corrective actions unless I hear from you on an urgent basis.

Sincerely,
Jill Tomlinson
