5. FINAL PROVISIONS

- 5.1 This Agreement contains the entire agreement reached between the Parties on the subject of this Agreement. There are no side agreements.
- 5.2 Amendments and supplements to this Agreement as well as the waiver of any rights under this Agreement shall be in written form (excluding, however, transmission by way of telecommunications) in order to be valid unless a stricter form is required. This also applies to any amendment to, or cancellation of, this written form clause.

- 5.6 Should a provision of this Agreement be or become null and void as a whole or in part, or should a gap in this Agreement become evident, this shall not affect the validity of the remaining provisions. In such case, such valid and practicable regulation shall be agreed that in legal and economic terms comes closest to what the Parties intended or would have intended in accordance with the purpose of this Agreement if they had considered the point at the time of entering into this Agreement. If the nullity of a provision is due to a degree of performance or time (period or deadline) laid down in this provision, then the provision shall be agreed with a legally permissible degree that comes closest to the original degree. It is the express intention of the Parties that this severability clause shall not merely reverse the burden of proof but that section 139 BGB is contracted out as a whole, which means that this Agreement is upheld despite there being a void provision or a gap. However, in derogation of the preceding provisions, this Agreement shall be null and void as a whole if it is null and void in relation to individual parties or if an essential contractual provision is null and void and the partial nullity would change the overall nature of the Agreement.
