Response to Notice of Non-Recordation

Further to our telephone conversation with Shaniece Hayes from the Assignment Recordation Branch on October 30, 2023, we are resubmitting the previously submitted Corrective Assignment as filed on September 18, 2023 for recordation for reconsideration. We thank Ms. Hayes for her time in reviewing the issues with the owner's representative.

The owner has hereby satisfied the requirements to correct typographical errors on a previously recorded cover sheet by submitting the following to the Assignment Recordation Branch: (1) a completed new cover sheet containing the correct information; (2) a copy of the originally recorded assignment document (or other document affecting title); (3) a copy of the previously recorded, original cover sheet containing the erroneous information; and (4) the required fee for each application or registration to be corrected. TMEP §§503.06(a)-(a)(i).

For completeness, the owner submits that the receiving party's official name, as set forth in the September 18, 2023 filing, as registered with the state of Delaware is "Hunter Industries Incorporated." See attached. There was a minor typographical error on the previously recorded cover sheet and assignment agreement submitted on June 29, 2005 in which the receiving party's name is listed as "Hunter Industries, Inc." "Hunter Industries, Inc." has always been "Hunter Industries Incorporated" - there is no new ownership of the registration nor has there been a transfer of trademark rights or a change in name. Consistent with Section 503.06(a)(i) and Section 1201.02(c) of the TMEP, this is a minor clerical error which does not result in a change of entity or a change of a significant portion of the owner's name. Based on the above, the owner requests that the PTO record the corrective assignment and update the relevant trademark registrations to show "Hunter Industries Incorporated" as the Registrant.

If the PTO has any questions, please do not hesitate to contact the owner's counsel as listed below.
